AMERICA'S TOWN MEETING OF THE AIR COMES TO HOWARD UNIVERSITY

The Pittsburgh Courier (1911-1950); Jun 6, 1942; ProQuest Historical Newspapers Pittsburgh Courier: 1911-2002 pg. 24

AMERICA'S TOWN MEETING OF THE AIR COMES TO HOWARD UNIVERSITY

On recent Town Meeting of the Air, President Mordecai Johnson of Howard university and Prof. Doxey Wilkerson were debaters on affirmative side of the ques-tion: "Is There a Basis for Spir-itual Unity in the World Today?" For the negative, speakers were: Prof. Alain Locke and Acting Dean Leon Ramsom. Unner left: General scene as Prof. Alain Locke and Acting Dean Leon Ramsom.

Upper left: General scene as Professor Wilkerson speaks.
Top center: Prof. Leon Ransom said: "Being a realist, I see no basis for spiritual unity in the world today."
Top right: Standing with George V. Denny, founder and moderator of the popular radio show, conducted last week at Howard, is President Mordecai Johnson, answering a question for a member of the audience.
Lower left: Audience asked questions of speakers as main feature of broadcast. John Davis, of National Negro congress, addresses his question for Dr. Johnson.
Center: "A question for Dr. Johnson" was a familiar phrase. An unidentified member of the audience of the audience aske an unidentified member of the support to questioner.

Right: Professor Locke an-swers question this time. Prof. Doxey Wilkerson gives the ques-tion a great deal of thought.— McNeill Photo.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.