

SAMPLE INVENTORY FOR MANUSCRIPT COLLECTION

M-69

BEULAH STORRS LEWIS PAPERS, 1901-1948

1 box

Beulah Storrs Lewis was born in Utah on January 21, 1881, and died in Los Angeles on November 9, 1947. She was a prominent Club Woman, actress, lecturer and Bahá'í teacher and a close friend of Carole Lombard. She wrote extensively on inspirational subjects.

The donor of the Papers is K. L. Storrs.

CONTAINER LIST

	BOX	FOLDER
CORRESPONDENCE	1
Albert Clark, 1940		1
James Clark, 1940		2
Sam Clark, 1940		3
Forest Lawn Memorial Park, 1942		4
Kinneys, 1943		5
Carole Lombard, 1940		6
National Teaching Committee, 1940		7
Ramona Supper Club, 1930		8
Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá'ís of Salt Lake City, 1944		9
OTHER CORRESPONDENCE	2
Ella Nash, Letter from Mary Hanford Ford, 1901		1
K. L. Storrs, Letter from Forest Lawn Memorial Park, 1948		2
K. L. Storrs, Letter from National Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá'ís of the United States, 1948		3
LITERARY PRODUCTIONS	2
Manuscript, "All Days are Mothers' Days," 1926		4
Manuscript, "Friendship"		5
Manuscript, "I Have Made Death Even as Glad Tidings Unto Thee," 1930		6
Manuscript, "Inspired Answer to my Claim of Inspiration," n.d.		7
Manuscript, Autobiography (Draft)	3	1
Manuscript, Biography of Dorothy Baker (Draft)		2