Volunteers to write clues for an exciting new Bahá'í board game.

“19 Questions” is a family board game that will broaden your knowledge of the people, places, dates and things associated with the Faith. No prior knowledge is needed to take up the challenge of writing clues. Guidance on how to do the research will be given to interested volunteers. Writing clues is not all about finding facts but allows for creativity and initiative. Large or small offers of help will be appreciated.

The Wayfarer's Journey – the CD

Nearly 50 minutes of meditation for your Tranquillity Zone, to be part of the devotions at your 19 day Feast, for your own personal reflection, or to send to friends who are in need of hearing narrated extracts from each of the Seven Valleys of Bahá'í.

A healing medicine for those whom you know to be ill and who wish to listen to the words of God, to help soothe their troubles and pain.

This stirring and gorgeous CD recalls the music drama performed in the Cheddar Caves of Somerset in August 1999 through well crafted narration coupled with deft musicianship. A gift from the Bahá'ís to the Bahá'ís and their loved ones. Please send £10 (which includes p&p) to:

“Standing Aside or Standing Together”

The focus this year will be on empowering the individual and releasing our potential. The aim is to provide Bahá'ís and friends of the Faith alike, with the tools to help us develop our skills to overcome self-imposed limitations, to gain confidence, to become positive and to achieve results.

So put the dates in your diary now, start putting aside a little money each week and give your name to the registrar so that you can go on the waiting list. Hopefully costs will be kept at last year's rates:

£85 for the full school, £75 for children and youth, £30 for under-fives. All meals included – all rooms en-suite.
