A BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ear. - Proverbs 26:17.

REFUSE TO SELL SHIP TO COLORED PEOPLE

Several weeks ago a wealthy colored man who had risen to the rank of captain on one of our government ships conceived the idea of buying one of the vessels which the government had advertised for sale.

Draws the Color Line

As if it did not already have an abundance of troubles, the United States Shipping Board apparently is inviting more woe by drawing the color line. The Chronicle published a few days ago the statement of Captain Harry Dean that he had been refused a shipping board vessel which he intended as the nucleus of the merchant marine of Liberia when Washington officials discovered he was a Negro.

Having accepted the colored race as citizens of the United States, the Federal Government can hardly deny them any of the rights and privileges of citizenship and maintain a reputation for consistency.

ELKS LEADER REFUSES TO BE POKETED

When a man is caught cheating in a game of cards or any sort of game for that matter, he is usually called a crook and his playing from that time on is watched with suspicion.

caught. For that whole-hearted, true Elk, J. Finley Wilson, has put it down in black and white that he would not stand for any scheme that did not represent the real principles of Elkdom.

THEY LET HIS JAIL ALONE

'Try to tear down my jail, and there will be some new widows in Crawford county, and some new faces in hell!' With this remark forcefully made by a person with a reputation for veracity Sheriff Shaw of Fort Smith persuaded a mob of 1000 mad Arkansians to let his jail and the prisoners it held severely alone.

The woman who doesn't like this paper because it is no good and never gets anything right should tuck up her underskirt. It hangs down and looks sloppy. The editor of the Economy may not know how to run a newspaper right, but he knows how to put his clothes on so his underwear won't show. -Solon (Iowa) Economy.

EX-PRESIDENTS' WIVES

Five wives of ex-Presidents of the United States are still living: Messdames Benjamin Harrison, Grover Cleveland, Theodore Roosevelt, Warren G. Harding and Woodrow Wilson. Only one living ex-President: William Howard Taft. And yet some people have been heard to say that men are longer lived than women.

POLITICS

The colored people, politically speaking, cannot now be counted upon to vote for every Tom, Dick and Harry, for no other reason than that he is a Republican. In the East and middle West, the colored vote is going to be the deciding factor in the next election, and if those who are in control of the campaigns are wise, they will put that in their pipes and smoke it.

William McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury in the late ex-President Wilson's cabinet, and who seems to be the choice of the Democratic party for nomination for President, has fallen by the way side, since it has been brought to light that he was mixed up in the tea-pot dome oil scandal.

Who will be the Democratic party's idol for president, now that Mr. McAdoo has been caught in the net of investigation of the oil scandal?

Will Mr. Coolidge's strong opposition to the proposed soldiers' bonus cause him to lose Oregon in the primaries?

Milton Miller, the Democratic war horse, who is a candidate for U. S. Senator, will soon open headquarters in the Morgan building.

Most of the opposition to the Mellon tax proposition is due, we believe to the fear that it would do all that its authorities and supporters claim it would do.

Do not drive your car without your 1924 license, as you will be arrested and fined. The congested condition in the license bureau of the state has been overcome.

NATIONAL HEALTH WEEK

TUSKEGEE, Ala., Jan. 25.—National Negro Health Week, inaugurated by the late Booker T. Washington, will be observed throughout the South and other sections of the country from March 30 to April 5th. In general, the movement is under the auspices of the Inter-racial Committee and its 800 County and State branches. Other civic and social organizations will assist.

TACOMA NEWS

(By Fred U. Harris)

The revival meetings at the Bethlehem Baptist church ended with the baptismal services on Friday evening, rendered by Rev. W. D. Carter of Seattle. There were thirty-three enrolled upon the different church records resulting from this series of meetings.

Roland Hayes will make his appearance at the Bethlehem Baptist church the first part of March; every one should endeavor to hear the wonderful program that he has to present to us.

We are glad to see Mrs. William McCabe out again, it really makes our heart glad to shake her hand.

Wm. Outten suffered a slight shock from being out Friday evening. We hope that he will soon be out again.

S. Johnson is out again welcoming his many friends.

NOTED ARCHITECT VISITS

Charles Mason Remy of Boston, Mass., spent several days in the city this week as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Latimer, 297 E. 38th street. N. Mr. Remy gave several lectures at the Metaphysical Library during his stay here and was royally entertained by numerous friends. His extensive travels both in this country and abroad, his keen insight into human nature and international questions make him a most interesting conversationalist.

Mr. Remy is a staunch disciple of the teachings of Abdul Baha, and was a member of a party of believers who visited the wonderful teacher in the holy land before he passed a little more than a year ago.

In speaking of the "Race question" Mr. Remy's idea of an ideal society is where every individual not only tolerates every other individual, but actually loves. He says that the different races have a great attraction for each other and until the spiritual and moral ideal of social intercourse is formed, there will always be misunderstanding and strife as a result of the physical relations between the races. Mr. Remy's talks were highly educational and illuminating.
