Foreign Fields" reached our desk this week brimful of interesting news concerning the colored race, discussed from many viewpoints by able churchmen.

ON TO PERSIA!

(By William Pickens)

A mob killed an American over there. That must not be tolerated. Our government must have a thorough investigation. Of course, mobs kill Americans in Georgia, but that is different. We do not need to investigate about Georgia we already know about that. Then, too, we have some authority over Georgia, while we haven't a bit of authority over Georgia; it is doubtful whether we can do a thing in Persia. Therefore, on to Persia. Something must be done there.

That was a "religious mob" that killed one American in Persia. Those are irreligious mobs that have killed 450 Americans in Georgia therefore, on to Persia! Never mind Georgia. We must give Georgia a

That American in Persia was violating the religious sentiments of the mob. But the Georgia mobs don't have any religious sentiments. Whereas and therefore, the Persian mobs ought to be punished.

What a savage country Persia is, to kill one American in a sudden fanatical religious frenzy. They don't even know how to coolly and deliberately burn fourteen in a single year as the United States did in 1919. On to Persia!
