

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Dec 11, 1915;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 5

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Sunday, December 12, at 4 p. m., Rabbi Theodore Joseph will speak on some topic of the day. Rabbi Joseph attended the memorial services at Lincoln Center for the late Booker T. Washington. Being much impressed with the program, his motive was to become better acquainted with members of the race. Professor A. C. Elgar will give a group of violin numbers. Last Sunday's musical was a great success.

Mrs. Antoinette Crump Cone is assisting one of the public schools in Oak Park to arrange for a pageant of national music, her part being the jubilee songs. She is meeting with marked success. Her principal and several assistants attended last Sunday's meeting, expressing much interest in the center.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.