

THE BUCKEYE STATE

By Alexander O. Taylor

Cleveland, O., May 17.—At a business meeting of the senior department teachers of St. John's A. M. E. Sunday school held at the residence of Mrs. Grace Willis Thompson, superintendent, the following officers were elected: President, Attorney John Ballard; vice president, Miss Venessa Washington; secretary, Miss Clements; treasurer, Mrs. Brett Stewart; sick committee, Hooker Page; entertainment committee, Chester Gillespie, chairman. The department gave a party May 17. * Mrs. Belle Smoot, superintendent of Branch No. 2, Christian Missionary Alliance, accompanied by Mesdames Kittie Bolden and Carrie Merriweather, attended the meeting of the C. M. A. Council in New York city this week. Mrs. Bolden will visit her son who is attending an eastern college before returning home. * Mrs. Cora Brock and Miss Ida Beaumont visited the latter's mother in Mansfield the first of the week. * Mrs. Byron B. Johnston, 2251 E. 50th street, left Tuesday to visit her mother, Mrs. Lawrie, and sister, Mrs. Oliver, St. Joseph, Mo. Both were Cleveland visitors last summer. * The Doric Masonic club moves into its new quarters, E. 55th street and Central avenue, next to the Jewish synagogue, May 20. The property is being purchased by Eureka Lodge, F. and A. M. * J. Trimble, 11725 Detroit avenue, Lakewood, left Saturday for a few days' visit in Louisville, Ky. Mr. Trimble is the owner of three prosperous barber shops here. * Mrs. J. E. Fountain, wife of Col. Fountain, visited her son, William Fountain, who was in Columbus last week with the Smarter Set. * The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crowler died last week from double pneumonia. Both are active workers in the different departments of St. John's church and have the sympathy of the Defender. * Mrs. Clarence Williams, formerly Miss Clara Deaver, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lealand, St. Paul, Minn. She visited Mrs. Clara Morris Wilson, wife of Attorney Wilson, Chicago, en route. * Rev. B. K. Smith, pastor of East Mt. Zion Baptist church, officiated at the funeral of a friend, Deacon Calvin Reed, at Oberlin. * Mr. and Mrs. William McIntyre have moved into their beautiful home on E. 55th street. * Sunday was quarterly meeting day at Cory M. E. church. Rev. D. E. Skelton preached a soul-stirring sermon and administered the Lord's Supper in the morning, assisted by the pastor, Rev. P. O'Connell. Mother's Day was fittingly observed by the S. S. * The Social Workers' Club of East Mt. Zion Baptist church held a splendid meeting at the home of Mrs. Mildred Foster, 2230 E. 27th street, May 7. * Mrs. McKenzie, 2315 E. 30th street, was hostess to the Optimistic Club last week Wednesday. Next meeting at Mrs. Franklin's, 2117 E. 13rd street, May 22. * Mother's Day was observed at Antioch Baptist church in a fitting manner. Mrs. Gertrude Land, directress of the choir, sang effectively a solo, "My Mother's Prayer." * The Congressional Women's Association was organized last week Wednesday at Mt. Zion Congregational church with Mrs. Rachel Walker Turner as president, Mrs. Fannie Shook Suggs, vice president and Mrs. W. H. Chaney, secretary. Mrs. Hattie Fairfax deserves praise for assuming the initiative in the movement. * Mrs. Lella Brooks, 3210 Scovill avenue, returned from a pleasant visit in Pittsburgh. * Corp. Lucien Hancock, Camp Sherman, was here last week, accompanying an invalid soldier from the camp hospital. Corporal Hancock, who was assigned to the duty of escorting invalid soldiers (selects) to their homes, has made an enviable record for promptness in reporting after each mission.

Ladies' Minstrels a Success
The Ladies' Minstrel show under the auspices of the Autumn Leaf Culture Club at Engineers' hall for the benefit of the hose furnishing committee of the Phillips Wheatley Association was an artistic and financial success. The cast of characters was as follows: Mrs. Smoot, Mrs. Lethia B. Fleming; Mr. Short, Helen Montgomery; Mr. Quick, Maud Lawson; Mr. Nightingale, Mary Martin; Mr. Frolle, Pearl Hines; Mr. Slick, Ethel Burrows; Mr. Chittlings, Susie Fleming; Pork Chops, Ethel Lyons; Hot Stuff, Florence Robinson; Seasonhead, Rose Stowers; Sambo, Daisy Bass; Friskie, Kate G. Russell; Mr. Delight, Alice B. Howard; Mr. Shy, Beulah Terrell; Mr. Good, Eva Muse; Mr. Noise, Florence Shaw; Mr. True, Rebecca Minor; Mr. Love, Beatrice Harris; Mr. Deenheart, Abbie Hutchinson; Mr. Long, Ida M. West; Mr. Sphiny, Winifred Reed; Mr. Dolly, Bessie Randolph; Mr. Right, Lydia McFarland; Mr. Stepper, Fayette Mercer; Mr. Little, Freda Early; Mr. Thrills, Irene Dillard; Mr. Dots, Hattie Smith; Reginald Ryan, our original monologist, and Howard Carey, the dramatic reader, contributed heavy support to the evening's program as well as Mrs. Ruth McFarland Taylor, our popular soprano, who rendered several beautiful numbers. Mrs. Abbie Hutchinson as "Liberty" and Mrs. Fleming as "Uncle Sam" in the patriotic review and little Thelma Cowan, who won popular favor also in the patriotic pageant several weeks ago at Grays' Armory by her graceful rendition of the "Flower Dance" and the "Hula-Hula" dance, were artistic features of the program. E. M. McIntyre as musical director, Mrs. Dimple Ferguson as pianist, Walter A. Henderson as stage manager, and Mrs. Lethia Fleming as chairman of the committee of arrangements, deserve unstinted praise for the success of the affair. The next entertainment for the benefit of the P. W. A. will be a mammoth charity ball at Zimmerman's Academy, May 20, under the auspices of the L. U. B. F., the Young Men's Auxiliary and the Citizens' Committee. Most all the churches lifted special collections for the P. W. A. Sunday. * Here are the officers of the Crispus Attucks auxiliary of the Red Cross organized at the home of Mrs. Marie T. Perkins last week: Mrs. Perkins, chairman; Mrs. Julia Banks, secretary; Mrs. Ella White, treasurer. * J. W. Wells & Co. report the following deaths: Mrs. Luther Thomas, 2520 E. 33rd street, remains shipped to Alabama; Mrs. Henrietta Walker, 40, shipped to Memphis, Tenn.; Anna Lee Benford, 40, E. 126th street. * N. B. Fort, chef on one of the D. & C. boats, was here last week at Moss' Central Hotel recruiting cooks and waiters for service on the lakes. Other guests at the hotel were: William Berry and Charlie Drayton, Chicago, of W. H.

Hahn's quartette which made such a decided hit at the Hippodrome last week; Mrs. May Litcher, Letonia, N. J.; C. Manes, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Gable Adams, New York city; L. W. Fielding, New Castle, Pa.; John Scofield and Sam Hartley, Medina, Ohio. * The following out-of-town Odd Fellows and ladies of the Household of Ruth were at the Central hotel Sunday as guests of Col. J. B. Reed, A. T. Abbott and Ed. Daw, members of Charles Sumner Lodge; Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Anderson, Matt Johnson, James Alexander, John Shadd and Harry Cummins, all of Sandusky, Ohio; Mrs. Fannie Williams, Cairo, Ill., and J. E. Munson, Lima, Ohio, special guest of Col. Reed. A sumptuous dinner was served the guests. In spite of the rain the annual thanksgiving services of Charles Sumner and Booker T. Washington Lodges, G. U. O. of O. F., at Cory M. E. church Sunday afternoon was a success. Two white bands acted as escorts to and from the church. It is said that the Odd Fellows secured the two white bands for $100 because our bands refused to play for less than $175. * Sick list: Mrs. Jesse Carey, E. 29th street; Henry Taylor, improving slowly as well as Mrs. Annabel Tucker and Dr. George Turner; Miss Flossie Douglas still seriously ill with pneumonia at Huron Road hospital; Samuel Ward, one of our pioneer citizens; Mrs. John (Annie) Mann; Mrs. Amanda Thomas, E. 30th street; Director Jackson, of Jackson's Military Band, recovering from a fractured rib.

John A. Johnson Wins Honors
The Cleveland correspondent was pleased last week to read a splendid article (clipping) from a Flushing, N. Y., newspaper, written by John A. Johnson, serving as oiler on the U. S. steamer Wakiva, in which he denounced certain southern newspapers for claiming our people in the South as disloyal. Mr. Johnson is a native of Flushing and was a resident of Cleveland until he entered the U. S. steamer service. His wife is Mrs. Lela Allen Johnson, 3012 Central avenue. He enlisted in the U. S. Navy in May, 1900. Served in the Philippine campaign; at Vera Cruz in 1914; at Hayti in 1915; at San Domingo in 1916; and is now serving in France. Two of his chums were lost on the Alcedo when it was sunk. He has seen active service in several engagements with enemy ships. Aug. 25, 1916, he was presented with an honorable discharge button for splendid service on the U. S. S. Prairie. He also won a good conduct bar from the U. S. Navy department. He afterwards enlisted in 1917 at Monte Cristo and was assigned for duty on U. S. S. Ohio at the Philadelphia navy yards. * Charles Jordan, Engineers' Corps, 317, Co. E, Camp Sherman, visited his brother-in-law, William Glenn, E. 35th street, last week. * Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Dale have moved into their beautiful residence, 2322 E. 49th street. * Elmer J. Cheeks made two trips to Detroit on government business. He stopped at the Statler hotel. * Mrs. Fannie Suggs, the accomplished wife of Dr. J. T. Suggs, has been appointed teacher in the Cleveland public schools. Dr. Suggs loses a very competent "office girl." * Mrs. J. E. J. Nelson's, W. 110th street. Meeting next Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Dodson's, E. 46th street. * Mrs. Welcome T. Blue had charge of the splendid Mother's Day program at St. John's church Sunday morning. The paper by Mrs. E. F. Boyd, the duet by Mrs. Pearl Clegge and Mrs. Gladys Wells, the quartet number by Carroll Scott, T. J. Hicks and two other gentlemen, were deserving of special mention. * Major J. C. Fulton, recently discharged from service "over there" on account of physical disability, has purchased a handsome home on Bessemer avenue, through Juriman C. Hudson, the real estate dealer, who made three similar sales the past week. Major Fulton was major of the old Ninth Battalion a number of years.

Fleming Night a Success
The Attucks Republican Club and friends paid great tribute to their leader, Hon. Thomas W. Fleming, councilman from the 11th Ward, at its "Fleming Night" entertainment, given at its club rooms. Among the speakers were Director Lemar T. Beman, of the Mayor's cabinet; Maurice Maschke, Republican party leader of Cuyahoga county; Harry Gahn, president of City Council; Attorney Harry E. Davis; Sidney Thompson, foreman of the city street cleaning department, candidate for state representative; E. W. Sellers and Councilman Fleming. Music was furnished by the Imperial orchestra and entertainers from the Grand Central theater. The committee of arrangements were: J. C. Hudson, chairman; James Offer, W. H. Chaney, Dennis Fowler, Harry L. Kersey, M. D. Mason, E. W. Sellers, Dan Fairfax and W. H. Crawford. * Furnished rooms for rent at Mrs. E. A. Nelson's, 11901 Moulton avenue. * H. E.
