

Cleveland, Ohio, May 24. Robert Flippin, Pullman Co. storekeeper in the Big Four yards, visited his brother, James Flippin, Columbus, who has been relieved from active service "over there" on account of defective eyesight, and who is now in the employ of the United States shipyards in the east. Frank Crowler, brother of Robert Crowler, left the city for similar service a month ago. * Charles Harris, linen checker for the city, has received a letter from his brother, William Harris, former member of a stevedore regiment "somewhere in France," but now trombone player in one of our bands. Harris has been injured by gas and injuries to one of his arms and may be home on a short furlough. * Dallas Wallace, member of the Young Men's Redoubt club, left Friday for service at Camp Sherman. Mrs. Julia Banks and her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Williams, were in the city last Sunday. * Mrs. Ed Chaffin Sr., accompanied by Mrs. Biggs, mother of Dr. W. S. Biggs, visited her son, Ed Chaffin Jr., at Camp Sherman Sunday week. The latter also has a son there. * Mrs. J. W. Williams, wife of M. E. church met with Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Davis, 2255 E. 71st street, May 8, with thirty-three mothers and babies present. Mrs. Elizabeth McIntire, supt., Mrs. Bessie Crawford, pres., and Mrs. J. W. Williams, sec., of the William Johnson and wife (Mrs. Mary C.), well known former members of St. John's church, visited Mrs. Wilson, E. 43d street, last week, returning to the city from a visit to the home of Lerry Thomas and daughters, who have moved to 2286 E. 71st street. * The Baraca Bible class of St. John's Sunday school, J. L. Jones, president, held an enthusiastic get-together meeting at the home of Mrs. J. W. Williams church. Cyril Crawford was chairman of the entertainment committee. * Here are the officers of the "Over the Top" club recently organized to pay the tuition of two girls at some business college. * Mrs. J. W. Williams, wife of J. W. Willis, president; Mrs. Lottie Richardson Green, wife of ex-Senator John P. Green, vice pres.; Mrs. Clara Bailey, school teacher, secretary and treasurer. * Mrs. Fannie Shonka, wife of Dr. T. B. Shonka, secretary. * Mrs. Miranda Chock, school teacher and wife of Attorney Roy Chock, critic; Mrs. Amelia McNaughton, wife of Wm. McNaughton, chairman of the program committee. * Mrs. Ruth McNaughton, Mrs. Beatrice Foster Oglesby, cashier of the Realty Housing and Investment Company, arrived from Indianapolis to be at the bedside of their sick brother, Andrew, who is at Erie street. * Mrs. Andrew Johnson, Frank Johnson, hostess to the Social Workers club at its last meeting. * Sergeant William Dorsey, 31th Eng. Co., Camp Sherman, visited his wife, Mrs. Ethel Moss, at Erie street. * Mrs. Ethel Moss has been promoted with the title of mechanic and is chauffeur to one of the chief officers of the camp. * The following named officers have been elected to executive affairs of Cory M. E. choir: Mrs. John T. Brown, president; Mrs. James O'Far, vice president; Mrs. Joe Louis Jackson, secretary; Mrs.

Bousla Sherman, treasurer. • The Harmony trio, Mrs. Pearl Cleare, Mrs. Ollie Wells Ball and sister, Miss Gladys Wells, furnished the program at a big Masonic (white) entertainment at the temple, 106th street and Euclid avenue, last night. Miss Bessie Clink was accompanist. • Capt. W. M. Gates was here last week from Camp Sherman; also "Dick" Marshall of the 317th engineer corps, chauffeur for Col. W. E. Brown, en route to Oberlin. • Mrs. Alice Alexander, Mrs. Helen Brown, sister of Oscar Brown, is now proving rapidly. • Mrs. Evelyn Lindner, mother of Mrs. Madge Lindner Wright and sister of Mrs. Alice Alexander, manacled, died at Lakeside hospital, Friday last. • Mrs. Ida Owens, wife of her dead husband, is now with her friends. An invalid husband mourns her loss. • The Harmony Kings, Chicago, made such a decided hit at the Hippodrome recently, played a successful engagement in Erie, Pa. The memorable song, "The First Ten," by W. H. Berry, second tenor. • Mrs. E. Carlhoute, and W. A. Hahn, basso and manager. They returned here Sunday. • Joe Silco has been discharged from service at Camp Sherman on account of illness. • Mrs. Ida Owens, who has been Tuesday Afternoon Thimble club Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Amanda Taylor, E. 37th street. Quotations for "Mother" were indulged in with much feeling. The officers are Mrs. Ida Owens, president; Mrs. Bessie Crawford, vice president; Mrs. Bessie Taylor, secretary; Mrs. Lottie Stewart, assistant secretary; Mrs. Maggie Rogers, treasurer; Mrs. Ida Owens, critic. • Mrs. Charles Warren, 1806 E. 90th street, was elected to the Present Day club Tuesday afternoon. • A jury Friday a jury in Judge Stevens' court, only seven minutes, rendered a verdict of $2,000 in favor of C. R. Elliott, who sued the Black & White company, for injuries sustained while footed at the Lindner company store on Euclid avenue. • J. W. Willis & Co. report the following deaths: Jas. Anderson, 14, son of Mrs. Lizzie Anderson, 1516 Scoville avenue; Thomas Tate, 2318 E. 30th street, member of the Young Men's Christian association; Mary E. Tate, funeral from Shiloh Baptist church; William Farmer, 40, 2200 E. 35th street; Mrs. Smith, 3721 Scoville avenue, died suddenly of acute indigestion. • Fannie Wells, well known soprano voice, left for Chicago last Sunday after a successful week at the Grand theater.

Pythians Attract Thousands
Thousands thronged Central avenue and East 34th street Sunday afternoon to witness the spectacular parade of the Pythians. The occasion being the annual thanksgiving service at Cory M. E. church, East 35th street and Scovill avenue, where the annual sermon was preached by the Rev. J. H. Patterson. The personnel of the parade included: Anderson, grand marshal of the day on horseback, followed by Lieut.-Col. J. H. Fontaine, in charge of staff, and George B. Cooper, in charge of the band. Tired in white; Pioneer Corps, Messrs. Frank Morgan, Charles Cannon, Small and another whose name we were unable to obtain; band of fifteen pieces; a choir of 150 voices; and a band of 100.

B. Morgan and William C. Richardson, Lieuts. O. B. Chase and William C. Grayson, Columbus Co. K. in charge of Capt. Louis Gray. Lieuts. C. J. Ramsey and Walter Matthews; band of fifteen pieces; members of Edwin Cowles, No. 17; Westchester Co. Militia, No. 18; Illinois, No. 70, a number of whom were in the ladies of drill corps in white uniform riding in autos; Royal Calanthe Drill Corps, No. 1, Capt. Rowena Hart; Capt. LaSant and Ada Jackson; Star Calanthe Drill Corps, No. 1, Capt. Christian Little; Lieuts. Lulu Mead Brown and Marie Harris, followed by the Junior (future) Calanthe in autos. Maj. Roger N. Dillard (major of the 2nd and 3rd regiments) in command, Marcellus Early was master of ceremonies and Coleman Davis speaker of the day, delivering an annual K. of P. address. Excellent music was given by the band. They directed the direction of Harry E. Thompson. Members of Damon Court, No. 10; Hermion Court, No. 41, and Dyonosus Court should have been mentioned. The following features of the parade, in autos, followed: William New York city, guest of Councilman and Mrs. Thomas W. Fleming, en route from the Bahal convention in Chicago, was the speaker at the vesper service at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon. Rev. Harris of New Emanuel Baptist will speak tomorrow. * Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones, Akron, the former brother of George Jones, Cleveland, will be the speaker. Here is a correct list of the graduating class of the Ohio College of Chiropractic commencement and banquet to be held at the Hollenden hotel May 30: Miss Mary E. Doughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Moore, Columbus; Arnold Shaw, Dayton; O. B. P. Brownlee, Charleston, W. Va., and Homer G. Cox, Cleveland. Mrs. E. W. Moore, the mother of Miss Ruth, will be the only one of the Race, outside of our graduates, at the program. * On Wednesday evening Felix Young, general secretary of the Young Men's Christian Union, announces a reception and banquet to be held in the Union on Thursday, May 25th street, to which all members of 1911 and 1912, wives, sweethearts and friends are especially invited. A sitting arrangement will be lifted. As the day of the week is the 26th of the month (Thursday, May 29), given the respondent by Mr. Worth do not coincide, we took for granted he erred in the day of the week. Exact day can be ascertained by phoning Mr. Worth at the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Dennis D. Naylor, married Thursday evening, a pleasant reception. * The Apollo quartet will arrive Akron May 23. The members are Messrs. Walter, George Blizello, J. T. and Harry. The latter Ford being the one of peerless cornet infanter fame. This will be the second appearance of the quartet in the city. * Mrs. George Dunhill and baby son, Conrad, will arrive Sunday after a pleasant stay on her father's farm in Chardon and with her mother, Mrs. Crazetta Gordon. * Mrs. May, mother of Will H. Dixon, the popular and successful composer who died in New York city in 1917, returned to Chicago Sunday morning after several months' stay in the West City. * A mass meeting will be held at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday church Sunday afternoon when Dr. Cory Henrietta Vinton Davis. * Mrs. Geo. Sampson, mother of Mrs. Hattie Dale collapsed Friday and fell downstairs at her home on East 30th street, suffering slight injuries. She was removed to the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Sutherland, where she is improving. * Mrs. Sutherland is the pastor and superintendent of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, is improving at St. Alexis hospital after an operation. * Mrs. Butler church Sunday morning at Cory Zion church Monday evening in the interest of the Story drive for the 10,000 new members of the N. A. A. * The Phillips Memorial fund for the benefit of the Phillips Memorial Association, Monday evening, was a great success, it is said. * Leo Dabney, Cincinnati, is stopping at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. John Cowan, East 71st street. Miss Henrietta Vinton Davis, the noted traveler and eloquentist, Washington, D. C. gave meritorious entertainments at Cory and East Mt. Zion Baptist churches the past week. Mt. Zion Congregational church will hold a Memorial Day service May 30, 10:30 a. m. Attorney Charles H. Martin will deliver the address. * The Union Congregation is extended to all ministers and congregations and those having relatives in war service are especially urged to attend. Rev. Irving Keith Merchant, the pastor, will deliver the sessions of the State Association of congregational churches in Canton. He is the only colored minister in the association. * The Union Congregation preached at the annual conference at Greenville, Sunday night, filling an engagement for Superintendent Rothrock of the Congregational Union. Rev. Dr. Merchant's absence from the pulpit in Reed Merchant, and son, Irving Merchant, Jr., are visiting relatives in Portsmouth, N. H. Mrs. Merchant is coming to the city. * Mrs. Sarah Nancy Ponzo, mother of Mrs. McCuller, mother Hattie Tate, Merriam Bennie and Dave Ponzo was brought to the city from Mt. Sanaul hospital Friday, May 17. She is coming home with her daughter, Mrs. McCuller, 1000 Scoville avenue, slightly improving.

U. B. F. and S. M. T. Celebrate
The annual thanksgiving services of the United Brethren of Friendship and Sisters of the Mysterious Ten and Juveniles of Cleveland will be held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. at Second Emmanuel church, 79th street and Quincy avenue.
The master of ceremonies, will read the annual proclamation; Miss Allen will read a paper; Mr. Renfro will sing, and Mr. Harns, pastor, will deliver the annual sermon.
The hymn, "I have believed that at Mt. Zion Sunday," preached the Christian's interest in the Day of Pentecost. There was a large attendance at both services. * St. John's A. M. E. church, where the churches were splendidly represented in the day's great parade in the interest of the Victory Chest campaign. * The ladies' committee in charge of the furnishing of the P. W. A. building, Mrs. T. W. Fleming, chairman, has the following collections from the seven churches "Mothers Day": St. John's A. M. E., $2.63; Church of God, $12; Love Memorial C. M. E., $6.65; Mt. Zion, $14.60; First Baptist, $5.57; Second Emmanuel Baptist, $5.57; St. Mark's Presbyterian, $1.01. * Jesse Mason, 2515 East 33rd street, has not heard as yet from his brother, "Jim" Mason, who is supposed to be at Camp Grant, Rockford.
* Agnes Harris are delegates for St. Andrew's Auxiliary in Toledo this week. * Frank Jones, Camp Grant, is visiting friends here this week. * Cory, a member of the band, John Hall, president, will pray every Sunday morning 6:30 for the saving of souls. * The Christian Endeavor society has resumed its meetings at Mt. Zion church every Tuesday evening 6:30, under the direction of Pickle and Tousey. * Services at Mt. Zion Congregational church, East 31st street, as follows: Preaching, 10:45 a. m.; Sunday school, 12:30; C. E. 6:30 p. m.; praying at 7:30 p. m.

Dr. Leroy Bundy Speaks
Dr. Leroy Bundy, who with his wife, is visiting his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Charles Bundy, and sister, Mrs. Lulu Bundy Talbot, addressed a large gathering at Mt. Zion church last week, Thursday night, giving an interesting and striking reminder of his experience in the infamous East St. Louis riot. The doctor and wife were royally entertained during their visit in Chicago. — The G. U. O. of O. F. and extensive donations for their fifteenth anniversary, to be held at the Emporium, East 31st street near Euclid avenue, Monday evening, June 10, officers: Miss Bessie Thurman, M. N. Miss Nellie Pearl Mealey, R. N. G. Miss Mattie Chubb, F. M. N. Committee, Pearl Mealey, chairman; L. A. Moore and Angelina Hawkins; James A. Parker, floor manager. — The Brotherhood of M. Zion is making plans for their summer, June 6. — C. Ray Sinkovitch, clerk, — M. A. Reid, 2659 East 48th place. He also visited relatives and friends in Ironton, Cincinnati and Columbus, Ohio. J. Berni Barbour and his "Oleman" band. — "A Trip to Mexico," at Engineers' hall, Monday evening, June 10, for the benefit of the church extension fund of Baptist church. — Harry E. Thompson, Cleveland, popular baritone, scored a great hit at Pilsbury last week in recital with Clarence Cameron White, the violinist.

Youngstown, Ohio., May 24.—K. of P. Logan Lodge had their annual thanksgiving sermon on Monday night by Rev. Milant at Third Baptist church. Among the visitors were McKinley and Steele City ladies; Ladies of Calanthe with the Elks' band and the G. A. R. in uniform ranks and other lodges, marched in and paraded to the church, 250 strong. * Rev. Phillips preached an interesting sermon at Palmer Street Baptist church on the morning and at evening services. Rev. J. H. Ford, of the Baptist church preached a fervid sermon on "The Lord Will Provide." The collection was $62. * The East Ohio Baptist Association will meet here the first week in June. * J. H. Ford, moderator; Rev. Phillips, vice moderator. The association is new, having pulled out from the Western Pennsylvania association. * Mack McKenny and William Hawkins, Cleveland, spent several days here. * J. H. Ford, the correspondent and agent of the Chicago Defender which will be on sale at Adam's barber shop, 464 W. Federal street. All news of interest left at the above address. * The Defender published by the Defender, Phone Bell Main 3158; Auto 75357. * Mrs. Louise Day, Buffalo, N. Y., spent several days here and left for a week's visit to her mother, Mrs. J. H. Ford. * Jean Edwards, Buffalo, now of New Castle, was in Youngstown and Pittsburgh on business. * Miss Wilbernt Marshall, New York city, is making a tour of the Youngstown. * The Station restaurant opened on Sunday, which is a credit to our people. * A great many of our young people attend the Sharon dance and reception on Wednesday nights. Rooms are at a premium in Youngstown. * We find it very hard to be accommodated; also houses for Colored families. What's the matter with our Race men? Why not form a Colored co-operative business? * A Colored real-estate flat which would be a worthy investment and a credit to our Race men. There are over 500 Race men getting a $100 a month and no Colored business men. * A Colored man is getting a right back to the white men. Wake up, Colored Race men. * Miss Virginia Smith, Coverington street, entertained Miss May Jones and Miss Jennie Smith, Pittsburgh, on a birthday party Thursday night. Among the party Miss Smith, New Castle; Miss Mary Carter, Sharon; Miss Anderson, Pittsburgh; R. H. Ford, correspondent Chicago Defender; Chas. Jones and Henry Jones, Buffalo; Mr. J. H. Ford, Ridort hotel is sporting a new touring car. * John Collins, Henry Jones, Lou Harris, William Smith, Bert Tay for Geo. Johnson, Warren, Orisk, came to the city, and the following day, he was served Sunday. • R. H. Ford, formerly of Buffalo, N. Y., who is making Youngstown his home, is in business with T. J. Orell, merchant tailor, 257 N. Third street, and is doing a tailoring trade among the Race people. A notice other young men, as we need many other such Race men, as plenty of opportunities are open to all here. • I don't regret to subscribe for this Chicago Defender, and I have no excuse for it is at my very door. The Defender is strictly a Race paper for the Race. • The Adam barber shop is a credit to the Race people of Youngstown. In the city of Youngstown, on Saturday among the many thousand paraders were the Elks' band (colored): five Colored Boy Scouts; one little Race girl and not a Colored woman to represent the Race. Miss Ege, a prominent Ridgely hotel bar mother here, from Louisville, Zanesville, Ohio, May 24. — Clifford T. Zanesville, the field secretary of the Ohio Synagogue, the Hebrew Institute, spoke at Paul's A. M. church Sunday. * The funeral of Mrs. Amanda Busby was held last Friday, May 10. * Mr. and Mrs. Grant Busby were in the city. Mrs. Busby's mother, * Miss Sarah Edwards, Superior, Wis., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Edwards. * The quartette, composed of Mr. Oliver. B. Edwards, Mrs. B. Edwards, and Miss Olessa Williams, was very pleasing. * Miss Cleota J. Collins, New York, is in the city the guest of her father, Rev. T. A. Collins. * The supper given by the choir Saturday was a success. * The Ladies' Society of Paul's A. M. church will present a play Thursday evening. * Mr. and Mrs. David Edwards gave a reception for their daughter, Sarah. Over 600 people attended during the day. Mrs. Edwards is a singer of ability. * The Ladies' Study Club purchased a Liberty Bond. * Go to church services were well attended by members of both U. S. and C. E. churches. * The choir of Paul's church will present Miss Cleota J. Collins, the lyric soprano, in recital soon. * Mrs. Mary Farmer entertained the Mothers' Club at her home on Minnehaha avenue Sunday, May 13. * The Mothers' Club will address the Mothers' Club and Ladies' Study Club Sunday evening. * Miss Hukues is the state president of the Federation of Women's Clubs. * Mrs. Chapman Lee is the president of an organization at Bethesda hospital, is attending. * The young ladies of the Yashti class gave a tea party Thursday evening, May 9. * Mmes. Williams, Douglass and Violet Harass were hostesses. * The choir of Paul's church will sing at the Com. Simmons lecture, May 20. * Carlisle Fosse is still selling the De-Sandusky, Ohio, May 24.—The trustees of St. Stephen A. M. E. church gave the next social at the church Thursday evening. * Rev. Geo. E. Smith and Samuel R. Alexander attended the district meeting of the North Ohio conference, held at Marion, May 7, 8 and 9. The Odd Fellows and the Order of Redemptors accepted an invitation the Cleveland leaders to join them in the annual thanksgiving service at Cory Chapel A. M. E. church. A car was chartered and a large number of tickets were sold. * Mrs. John Martin, Fremont, Mass., spent the week ending her daughter Mrs. Moses Thompson, has returned home. * Mrs. Netta Cooley, Atlanta, Ga., arrived here to join her husband. The Mosleys are located at Mrs. Lizzie Davis Jackson, New York. * Mrs. Fielding Sadler, Georgia, Ga., recently arrived in Sandusky, may make their home here. They are residing with their daughter, Mrs. Essie Merritt, 1508 First street. * Chas. Montgomery, Lorain, and Andrew Bolling, Philadelphia, came to work at the Jarecki chemical works. * Mrs. Abraham Porter, Berlin Heights, spent a day in Sandusky visiting a niece. * Among the sick: Clarence Epps, Neil street, and Mrs. Hattie Ferguson, Franklin street. * Mrs. Mary Ann Samartian hospital and are at time improving. * Mrs. Chas. Sallee, 324

Center street; Samuel Ways, 310 Center street; Rev. E. E. Burton, Homeville; John Adams, and James F. Cannon are improving.* Rev. Gilbert Johnson is here visiting his brother, A. J. Johnson, 213 Central street. * Mrs. Donahue, Cleveland, Ohio, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Will Hopkins and Miss Frances Rhodes, Warren street.

Zanesville, Ohio, May 24.—Miss Leota Barnett and Mrs. Mary Masterson attended the annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association at Columbus, Ohio. * A large number of Odd Fellows from Cambridge, Barnesville and Circleville were in Zanesville to attend the annual sermon, which was given by Rev. J. W. Collins. * Thornton Tate, Pittsburg, Pa., is in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. Tate, of Moskhathe avenue. * The entertainment given by the Junior choir, directed by Mrs. J. W. Collins, was a success. * Miss Leota Barnett, of Zanesville, Ohio, is visiting her mother, Mrs. G. W. Gorman, of Columbus, who has been visiting Miss Leota Barnett, has returned home. * Miss Thelma Weaver and Mrs. Mary L. Henderson were sent as delegates to the annual convention of the Young Men's Christian Association, which convened at Columbus. * Miss Anna Hughes, Columbus, Ohio, was the guest of Mrs. Henry Tate on West Main street. * The Vastil class of the Sunday School of the church and realized a nice sum for their treasury. * Mrs. Galway's Circle served supper last Saturday and made a splendid affair of it. * Tolbert Grant Mitchell, of Columbus, is visiting his school Captain Charles Fry of Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, was the guest of his family for a few days. * The play entitled "The Closing of Sleepy Hollow School," given by the Ladies Aid, was a success. * The Ladies Aid of the Study Club, and also the ladies of the Mothers' club, along with the Lead a Hand unit, took part in the Red Cross parade Saturday. * Mrs. Josephine Johnson and her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Gorman, chorused which sang at the Colonel Roscoe Conklin Simmons lecture Monday evening, May 20.

Loveland, Ohio, May 24.—The Loveland Comedy Company gave a three-act farce comedy play for the benefit of the Primitive Baptist church. The show was staged by James A. Davis and ably assisted by six other singing comedians. Charles W. Maxberry and his assistants entertained quite a few of her friends from Dayton Sunday. • Rev. Johnson, Cincinnati, preached for Rev. Brown in his rally day services at the University of Pittsburgh, Pa., is the guest of her mother and father, Rev. J. W. Hannon and wife. • Mrs. Ethel Sherman entertained Mr. Bessie Silkirk Wednesday evening. • Rev. J. W. Hannon, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Cincinnati. • The following persons are still on the sick list. James Maxberry, Jessie Jackson and Mrs. Nannie White. • Mrs. Ethel Robinson and husband, Mr. J. M. Robinson, returned from their mother Sunday, leaving late in the afternoon to continue their motor tour to Cincinnati. • Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Frey of Dayton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hannon Saturday. • Mrs. Blanche Cole spent Saturday with Mrs. C. A. Hannon. • Rev. J. W. Hannon assisted Rev. Price in his rally Sunday at his church in Dayton. • Mrs. J. W. Hannon and family were the guests of her mother-in-law, Mrs. Wells.

By George Freeman
Oberlin, O., May 24.—K. of P. sermon was preached by Rev. Sweeney at the First M. E. church Sunday, May 19. The history of the lodge was read by Henry Bows. * Miss Juanita Quin spent the week-end with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Quin, 52 Union street. * Privates Howard Jones and Green from Camp Sherman spent the week with parents. * A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Quinn. * James Huston, Cleveland, spent Sunday in Oberlin. * The N. A. A. C. I. held their quarterly meeting Wednesday, May 15, at Mt. Zion Baptist church. * Fine time good reports were made. * Committee on the Fair. * The drive is continued until May 30. * The Woman's Home Missionary society gave a mock trial Monday, May 13, and also a May pole. * Mrs. Nancy Quinn is very ill. * Born to Mrs. Wm. Wheeler & George, Augusta, Ga. * The Court of Calanilians held their annual service at Rust M. E. church. Rev. Sweeney preached Sunday, May 13. * Howard Jones is home on a furlough from Camp Sherman. * Rev. Renfro preached at the Rust church, preached Sunday, May 12.

Newark, Ohio, May 24.—Company M. U. R. K. of P. and Friddle of Licking County of Calhoun held their annual exercise at the home of Mrs. W. H. Friddle.

A feature of the program was the raising of a service flag for brothers over there. * The Rosa Johnson Missionary Society gave a supper at Trinity. Tuesday evening, June 1, at the home of Raymond Marchant, Pittsburg, Pa., were the guests of Mrs. Marchant's mother, Mrs. A. J. Rossin. * The Silas L. Lewis was entertained by Mrs. K. R. Black at her home, 1014 Myrtle street. * Mrs. Moses Jasper is improving. * Mrs. W. A. Smith and daughter, Mrs. Carl Brown, have returned after a visit to the home of Mrs. J. C. Smith. The Mite Missionary Society met with Mrs. Fred Williams at her home in Hoover street Thursday evening. * Aaron Mitchell is on the sick list. Rev. Mr. Bandy held his third quarterly conference at Trinity Friday evening. * Mr. and Mrs. Fountain Johnson and children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shackleford in Granville street. * The Ladies Aid of the Conn. A. S. M. the Pythian exercise at Springfield Sunday. * Word has been received of the safe arrival of Carl Green and Samuel Weaver over there. * Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith and their daughter visited relatives last week.

Lockland-Wyoming, Ohio, May 24.—Mrs. Josephine Wells is visiting in Detroit, Mich. • William Ford, Pendry avenue, has been ordered to report for selective service in Alabama. • Corporal Harvie Faulkner, Privates Joseph Bright and Henry Phelps and Corporal Elmer Clark spent the week-and with parents, Fred Smith, of Grove avenue, Indianapolis, and Mrs. and Mrs. Stockton, Glendale, are visiting in Winchester, Ill. K. Y. • Mrs. Joseph Wood, Cincinnati, spent the week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. At Willis. • Mrs. Roy Ballard entertained the following guests in honor of Mrs. Sadie Schooler, who leaves soon for Maine to spend the summer: Meses. Elizabeth Dickerson, Mrs. Whitehead, Susie Mullins, Susan, • Mrs. Crystal Capps spent the week-end in Indianapolis, Ind. • James Lomax, Monessen, Pa., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Piersaw the past week. • Mrs. M. V. Roberts gave an entertainment in East End, Cincinnati, last Thursday.

Sektlan, Ohio, May 24.—Rev. S. E. Hoard, pastor of the First Baptist church, preached here last Sunday. • Mrs. Minnie Huey, Delphi, • • • • • "Mothers' Day" was beautifully observed at the First Baptist church, May 12, under the auspices of the A. B. C. U. • Mrs. Virginia Williams, secretary, presided. • • • • • members of the juvenile choir at the Baptist church Sunday made a remarkable showing. • The city B. Y. • • • • • Baptist church Sunday. • • • • • Walker is convalescent.

Lorain, Ohio, May 24.—The A. M. E. Methodist church held a mass meeting Sunday, May 19. The speaker was Hon. J. P. Green, Cleveland. * Mrs. R. Tate and Mrs. S. E. Fort are improving. * Mr. St. Julian left for Camp Sherman and his wife will make her home in Chicago with her sister.