

THE BUCKEYE STATE

A. O. Taylor

By ALEXANDER O. TAYLOR
Cleveland Office, 4316 Central Avenue
Phone Randolph 969

Cleveland, Ohio, Nov. 24.—Bishop C. H. Phillips of the C. M. E. connection leaves Nov. 27 for conferences in Birmingham, Talladega and Montgomery, Ala., expecting to return about Christmas time. He has just returned from conference in California. Mrs. Phillips will accompany him. Miss Marie Vaz, well-known nurse at Charity (St. Vincent's) hospital, was reported very ill as we went to press last week. Mrs. Lottie Jackson, nurse at Charity, Mrs. Minerva Taylor, housekeeper at the P. W. A. and assistant superintendent of St. John's Sunday school, underwent an operation at Charity hospital last week and is reported on the road to recovery. Mrs. William E. Clemens, Toledo, Ohio, is at her bedside. Messrs. Arthur Richardson, Eugene F. Cheeks, Antonio Gassaway, James Levy, Willie Shaw, Frank L. L. Motored to Oberlin Saturday to attend a party given by Miss Olga Palmer. Mrs. Ed Chaffin, 2651 East 51st street, proved a delightful hostess when she entertained the members of St. John's Helping Hand society in banquet style. Next meeting with the president, Mrs. William Twine, Friday, Nov. 24. The dinner at Mrs. Twine's last Wednesday was a success, $30 being realized. Russell Scott, special representative of the Hope Aid and Relief association, 4316 Central avenue, was here from Youngstown to spend the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Scott, East 52d street. Jane, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brewer, East 55th street, is improving from scarlet fever. Lester, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart, Crennell avenue, is able to be out after a severe attack of pneumonia. Mrs. Charles Munson, East 46th street, is ill at Charity hospital. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hansbary, 25th street, were pained to learn of Mrs. Hansbary's death so soon after the death of their son, James. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Putnam, son and daughter-in-law; Teddie Hansbary, son of the deceased, are recovering from typhoid fever. Miss Wilberetta Hansbary, school teacher and daughter of the deceased, escaped the malady. Andrew Trice, East 103d street, was host to the J. D. club Sunday week. The club members were glad to be presented with their new club pins. Mr. Cox, 2524 East 103d street, returned from Saginaw, Mich., where he spent the summer. Dame Rumor has it that Miss Anna May Knox and Lawrence Sanford, prominent members of the younger set of Tridestone Baptist church, are engaged to be married in the near future. Miss Wella Miller, daughter of Mrs. Nettie R. Miller, East 57th street, who is a member of St. John's choir, writes of her splendid success at Wilberforce university, reporting that she made 95 per cent in her last examinations. The funeral of Shelby Evans, 3405 East 64th street, took place from Tridestone Baptist church Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McIntire, East 55th street, had a Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Adams and children, East 103d street. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Marshall, East 46th street, delightfully entertained at a birthday Major William T. Anderson, attending the several A. M. E. conferences as secretary to Bishop Joshua Jones. Mrs. Anderson is just recovering from another attack of acute indigestion. She, in company with Mesdames Dovie King Clark, Ella White, Flora Byers of St. John's church and Mrs. Parker of St. James, attended the meeting of the Presidents' council of the W. M. E. in Fremont, Ohio. President G. L. Cheatham has returned on a trip to Cincinnati, Hillsboro and other points in the southeast. He called home last week Thursday by urgent business. Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus, East 43d street, have an attractive roadster. Mr. Cyrus is one of our most energetic insurance men. Howard Slaughter returned from a successful hunting trip to Springfield, Ohio Springs and vicinity. J. R. Plowson, East 43d street, also returned from an enjoyable hunt for game in New Vienna, Ohio, in the vicinity of the Goode farm. He was joined by several friends in Columbus en route.

James R. Snyder Buried
The community was shocked by the announcement of the death of James R. Snyder, a leader in Republican circles for a number of years in the East End. Death occurred at Charity hospital Sunday week after suffering with an attack of acute indigestion for only two hours. The funeral services were held Thursday at St. James A. M. E. church, of which he was a faithful member. The Rev. Joshua Evans officiating. The deceased was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him and will be greatly missed in Ward 19 activities, where he has served as precinct committeeman a number of years. He leaves a wife and one son, residing at 2705 East 105th street. Mr. Snyder served a number of years in the county recorder's office and at the time of his death had a county position. The death of Mrs. Annie Pruitt, wife of Moses Pruitt, 2254 East 97th street, at Providence hospital, 624 East 103d street, was also a surprise. She was an usher in St. John's A. M. E. church and was highly esteemed. Funeral from the church Wednesday. Mrs. Cella McLennon, mother of Mrs. Etta Rose, 5204 Portland avenue, was buried from Mt. Calvary Undertaking parlors. Other deaths reported (Slaughter Bros.): Cass Laumers, 40, 2251 East 39th; Washington Simmons, 70, shipped to Elizabeth, Pa.; Rosa Benjamin, 52, 2450 East 35th; Lucy Jones, 3422 East 25th; Frank Thompson, 65, 2225 East 57th; Eker, 2757 East 53d; Eugene Harrison, 5733 Central, shipped to Baltimore, Md.; Odie Elder, 7 months of age, infant of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Elder, 2353 East 25th; Clarence Mitchell, 3 months of age, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Mitchell, 2107 East 25th; Paralea Thomas, 22, 3108 Central, shipped to Knoxville, Tenn.; Mary Carnuff, 31, 2734 Scoville; Henrietta Brown, 48, 2543 East 63d; Mary Ballard, 47, 2425 East 63d; Augusta Black, 2300 East 30th; Leo Squair, infant of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Squair, 3477 Lake court; Van Flowers, 41, 2370 East 37th street, employee of the Westinghouse Co.; Taylor King, 23, son of Mrs. Viola King, 3221 Holyoke; Mallie, Washington, 50, 10604 Arthur avenue; Annie Pruitt, 20, 2254 East 79th. J. W. Willis & Co. report: Infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Moss, 493 111th avenue; James R. Snyder, 2305 East 103th; Gladys White, 5, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius White, 7705 Quincy; Florence Gill, 35, 2354 East 24th; Dorothy Harris, 1, infant of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harris, 2359 Woodland avenue.

Dr. Nickens Returns
Dr. J. K. Nickens, East 83d street, who spent six months in the West, including Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis, on a very successful lecture tour, returned to the city last Wednesday, accompanied by his wife, who joined him in Indiana. They visited relatives in Richmond, Indianapolis, Ind.; Wilberforce and Springfield, Ohio. The subject of Dr. Nickens' lecture was "Where the Negro's Money Goes." On his entire trip Dr. Nickens boosted the "World's Greatest Weekly" and carried an ad of the Defender's Cleveland agency in his attractive circular. Councilman and Mrs. Thomas W. Fleming had as guests for a few days Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cole, who motored from Detroit, Mich., in their beautiful Packard car. Mr. and Mrs. Cole were married three years ago in the Fleming residence. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Smart, East 40th street, are receiving congratulations. It's a fine baby boy. Mother and son doing nicely. The Harmony Trio made big hits last week singing at the Presbyterian church (white) in Bedford and the M. E. church (white) in Willowbury. The personnel of the trio is Mrs. Olive Ball, Mrs. Pearl Deane and Miss Gladys Wells. Mrs. Ball had a narrow escape from fatal injuries when she was hit by an auto at Sixth and Prospect last week Tuesday evening early. The Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority gave an enjoyable dinner Sunday week at the home of Miss Blanche E. Johnson, East 95th street. Miss Johnson is one of our only two Junior high teachers. Mrs. Jason Trice, East 103d street, visited relatives in Oberlin Sunday. Mrs. William Turner, 2227 East 40th street, returned from New York, accompanied by her grandson, little Leonard Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hill, who are now located in the East. Mrs. Little Styles, wife of Dr. B. C. Styles, East 55th street, is recovering from a serious illness. Mrs. Eliza Hodge, East 103d street, was in Elmira Sunday to visit her sick aged uncle, Andy Marshall. Mrs. Willie Smith, Canton, Ohio, was the Sunday guest of her sister, Mrs. Ella White, East 36th street. Mrs. Viola Burbridge, East 100th street, was hostess to the Tuesday Afternoon Thimble club this week. Plans were perfected for the indoor picnic to be given at Mrs. Jaines Rogers', 3322 Central avenue, Dec. 7. Mrs. P. W. Lemon, East 55th street, was hostess to the I. B. C. club last Friday evening. Out of town guests were Mrs. Sacramento, Atlantic City, and Mrs. W. E. Clemens, Toledo, Ohio.

Caterers Entertain
The annual reception for the ladies of the community, given by the Caterers' association in their palatial club rooms, 2216 East 40th street, was an unprecedented success, hundreds of ladies attending and partaking of the hospitality of our leading Race social organization of the city. The rooms were artistically decorated and a fine lunch was served each guest. After the public reception, the success of which was due mostly to the efforts of Hon. George A. Meyers as chairman, the members, wives and their friends enjoyed the rest of the evening in dancing, dining and other pastimes. George B. Alexander, chairman of the permanent committee, deserves praise for his untiring efforts put forth to make the entire evening one long to be remembered. George Terrell, Hudson avenue, who suffered a stroke of apoplexy, is slowly improving under the care of Dr. J. H. Taylor. It is reported that Captain Wright, formerly of the C. A. C. fled recently from the Adirondack mountains where he went for his health. Mrs. Emma Cox, Jackson, Miss., who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Taylor, 46th and Central, left for Indianapolis, Ind., to visit her sister, Mrs. Ransom, for a few days. From there she will go to St. Louis, Mo., to visit relatives en route home. Among the many who entertained at dinners for Mrs. Cox were Mr. and Mrs. Mason, East 3rd street, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fleming and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Robinson. Mrs. Cox may induce her husband to locate in Cleveland, being greatly impressed with the "Sixth City." The Excelsior club will hold a home bake sale in the office of the Anchor Life Insurance Co., 431 Central avenue, Saturday, Dec. 2. The stewaresses of St. John's church cleared $25 from their bake sale. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hickey motored from Pen Yan, N. Y., and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Gray, East 103d street. Mr. and Mrs. Murray Strode, East 55th street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby boy. Mrs. Addie Hunt, national organizer of the N. A. A. C. P., was in the city recently and organized a College chapter of the N. A. A. C. P. The officers are Albert Truner, president; Emory Lancaster, vice president; Miss Thelma Louise Taylor, secretary, and Antonio Gassaway, treasurer. The chapter holds its meetings in the W. A. A. The Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority is giving series of private dances in the Caterers' Association ballroom with Mrs. Sojack as instructress.

Church Doings
The Bonae Puellae club of Tridestone Baptist church met at the home of Miss Marie M. Larkins Wednesday evening with a large attendance. Next meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Ira E. Bell, Wednesday, Nov. 23. A Bible pageant will be given at the church Dec. 5 under the auspices of the Simmons Literary and Bonae Puellae clubs. There will be special Thanksgiving services at Tridestone at 11 o'clock. In the afternoon lectures will be given on "Citizenship." The public is invited. Bishop Schrems will officiate at the laying of the corner stone of the new Race Catholic church on East 9th street, between Central and Quincy, Sunday, Dec. 3. The name of the new parish is "Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament," formerly St. Monica's parish. The services will be held at 3 p. m. Rev. Thomas H. McKenney, priest in charge. The public is invited. A fine dinner will be served in the community house of Mt. Zion Congregational church, East 33d street, near Central. Thanksgiving day, to which the public is invited. Rev. E. A. Clarke, pastor of St. John's church, has almost reached his goal of $500, the balance needed to make up the $2,150 pledged by St. John's for the Wilberforce fund. The choir of St. John's church will have its eighth pleasant Sunday afternoon recital next Sunday, 4 to 5. The public is invited. Mme. Kistie Schem Mitchell will be the special artist. Mrs. Dazana Wado will read from Dunbar. The choir will render selections by Coleridge-Taylor, Dett and other Race composers. Arthur Smith, violinist, L. Burke, organ, and Thomas Choral society will assist. The public is invited. Rev. J. H. Dotson, pastor of Mt. Pisgah Baptist church, filled the pulpit for Rev. Harris of St. John's Baptist church, Painesville, Ohio, last Sunday. Union Thanksgiving services will be held in St. John's church at 11 a. m. by St. John's and Antioch churches. Dr. H. C. Bailey will preach. Special music will be rendered by both choirs. The Men's Brotherhood of St. James church listened to a splendid sermon by Dr. Clarke of St. John's church Sunday afternoon. Twenty-five dollars was raised for benevolent purposes. "The Tribe of Judah" of St. James church will present the Harmony trio at the church Tuesday evening, Nov. 28. Miss Mabel Clarke, pianist and organist, will give her recital at Mt. Zion church Monday, Dec. 4.

"Hooks" to Entertain
Members of the Independent Benevolent Order of Hooks of the World, an organization recently set up by prominent members of the local sporting fraternity, are making extensive preparations for their first annual Thanksgiving feast at Teutonia hall Thanksgiving night. The following are members of this live organization: Sam Stewart, president; Roy Jackson (Blue Steel); George Fry (Cigar Willie); Frank Gaines, Billie Erwin, Little Billie Erwin, Rebecca Hawkins, Irene Lillian and Mrs. Turner, Walter Carnes (blind man), Fred Blakely (Wing Hook), Lawrence Perry, James Nixon (Lucky), Lawrence Palmer, Roy Stone, John Smith, Ernest H. Parks, Ernest Long, James Grubbs, Mack G. Datcher, Tom Jolly, Bessie Holloway, Blanche Wilson, Anna Taylor, Anna Groman, B. J. Bramlet, Murphy Hogan, Clarence Sherron, Charles Watkins, Mrs. G. S. Palmer, Louis Lipscomb, Arthur Jones (Boos Hook), Alvin Hawthorne, Robert Hooke, William Johnson, Rice Clark, Odie Dalton, Hazel Sweeney, Waverly Hines, Orval Cruise, William Miller, Walter Walker, Leo J. Trimble, Matthew A. Elkerfeld, George Tracy, John G. Henry (Crip Hook), Clarence A. Harris, John Hammond, William Griffith, A. W. Hines, Fannie L. Hines, George Jackson, C. Parker, L. Jones, Grayce J. C. Duzler, Leonard Evans, Stead A. Ball, Henry Vreen (Nubby Hook), Francis Hatters, Corinne Taylor, Daniel Moore, J. Smith, William Young, Walter Mason, Jack Cottillo, Lillian Caldwell, James A. Willis, William Burns, Oscar B. Lewis, Crawford Warren, Elmer Kralie, L. V. Orton, Grant Conney, George S. Palmer and George Krall.

Passes Embalming Board
Roy Smith, son of the Rev. and Mrs. B. K. Smith, 2297 East 101st street, who graduated from Cincinnati College of Embalming at Columbus, Ohio, in June, went to Columbus, Ohio, to be examined by the Ohio state board of embalming Nov. 13. Mr. Smith passed successfully the examination, answering the theoretic questions in embalming, anatomy, bacteriology, pathology, chemistry, hygiene and sanitation. Nov. 14 in a written examination at the Southern hotel. He made his practical demonstrations in embalming at the Ohio State University clinic. Out of 62 attempting the examination, he was the only Race applicant. The apron social given by Mrs. Wella Berry at Shiloh Baptist church for the benefit of the club No. 6 was a successful event. Each lady and gentleman was presented with a small apron and put the penny in the pocket for the waist. The ladies served refreshments free. Mr. and Mrs. Laver enjoyed a delightful party at their residence, 2339 East 34th street, Saturday, Nov. 18, in honor of the 15th birthday of their daughter, Miss Nave Lavers. The following were guests: Josephine House, Juanita McConnell, Mildred Foster, Euella Malone, Lillian Balden, Elma Chapell, Mildred Chapell, Rose McConnell, Joe Lewis, James Howe, Thomas Jones, Fred Martin, A. Tucker, Alexander Nelson, Joseph Gee and the Laver family. Special guests were Miss Mary Trator and company, M. D. Stomall, Mrs. Carrie Anderson and Mrs. Nell Craig, Mrs. Anna Dickerson. They received many valuable presents. Refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Mason, East 43d street, entertained at dinner in honor of Mrs. Emma Cox, Jackson, Miss. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Findley, Mr. and Mrs. James Offer, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor and Mrs. Hollingsworth. The Optimistic club will meet Tuesday with Mrs. Jessie Daniels, 3520 Scoville avenue. Mrs. Della Offer, president, Aunt Sallie Barnes of the Old Folks home is critically ill.

"Plantation Days" Scores
"Plantation Days" made such a big hit at the Prospect last week that they were prevailed upon to remain another week. Being different from the many shows of the kind that have played in Cleveland large and enthusiastic audiences greeted the players during their entire stay. Most especially were they given a grand ovation at the "Midnight Ramble" performance last Friday, midnight until 3 a. m., when hundreds of the sporting and theatrical fraternities turned out.

New Defender Stand
Persons who transfer at 105th and Cedar can now get the "World's Greatest Weekly," the Chicago Defender, at the Public drug store, northeast corner. Defenders also on sale at the new Douglas drug store, 49th and Central.

Sunday Dinners
The White Lily, 4306 Cedar avenue, will serve Sunday dinners from 12 noon to 10 p. m. Meals served week days only upon special request. Order must be given before 1 p. m. R. W. Miller, the caterer. Phone Randolph 2139R.—Advertisement.

Phyllis Wheatley Notes
The adult music study club of the Phyllis Wheatley association held its regular meeting Tuesday evening at 7 p. m. A round table discussion on the early church music was greatly enjoyed, also interesting sketches of the lives of three master musicians were given, Bach, Beethoven and Wagner, by Miss Mattie Lively, Miss Ida Hodge and Miss Mary P.gram. This club meets every Tuesday evening.

Columbus, Ohio
—Columbus was honored this week with the visit of President John M. Gandy of the State Normal and Industrial Institute of Petersburg, Va. He was the guest of his son, Theodore, a student at Ohio State. Judge J. J. Oatneal of Washington Court House, Ohio, was a visitor to the city Sunday, coming up from his home to meet and greet Dr. Gandy, president of the school, of which Judge Oatneal is an honored alumnus. Counselor E. B. Barcus spoke before a large Pythian gathering at Alliance. Mrs. Roy C. Carter entertained the Embroidery club at her home the past week. Jim Williams purchased a Buick sedan. Executive Secretary A. W. Harby of Spring street has been East for the past 10 days attending the Y. M. C. A. conference in session at Atlantic City. Nimrod B. Allen of the Urban league was confined to his home a few days the past week with a cold. C. L. Harris, formerly in charge of the boys' work of the Y. M. C. A. state organization of Kentucky, was a visitor in the city the past week, the guest of T. K. Gilson. Phi Zeta Theta, a local sorority, entertained Friday, Nov. 17, at Garfield academy with a pre-Thanksgiving dance. Miss Florence Hayes returned last week from a visit to Chicago. Sidney Warren has purchased the barber shop on West Gay street, formerly owned and operated by Charles Parker. Ray McClelland has severed relations with the Pennsylvania railroad. He has purchased a farm near Littleton, Ohio. Mrs. William Buckner was called to Lexington, Ky., to attend the funeral of her uncle, Dr. A. F. McCoy has been nominated for superintendent of Second Baptist Sunday school. Miss Edna Lucas entertained the Progressive 500 club. Mrs. Dr. Mason and daughter, Dorothy, of Chicago, Ill., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Williams, 44 North Garfield avenue. Mrs. A. F. Donaldson and son, Kenneth, 211 North 17th street, returned last week from Hillsboro, Ohio, where they visited relatives. Dr. Cooper, Dr. Wilson and Dr. Woodlin form the executive board of the Nurses' Training school of Alpha hospital. Mrs. Goss, 211 Garfield avenue, died at Grant hospital, following a serious operation. Harry Jackson of Charleston, W. Va., was in the city last week. The Elite 500 club was entertained Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen McGreder. Attorney Chester Gillespie, Cleveland, Ohio, spent the week-end in Columbus. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mason plan to leave Nov. 29 for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will reside. Harold Tyler will address the Christian Endeavor of Hawthorne church Nov. 26, subject, "An Ideal." Dr. W. W. Cooper was elected president of the association managing the Alpha hospital. Dr. J. Harmon Wilson, secretary. Miss Dorothy Johnson, popular co-ed of Ohio State university, has recovered from a few days' illness.

Sektan, Ohio
The C. M. E. and First Baptist church members will render a united Thanksgiving service Nov. 30 at the town hall. A literary and dramatic program with a band concert will be featured. The Gilmore Brass band members rendered a benefit concert at the town hall Wednesday, Nov. 22. Order your Defender at once from N. C. Hawkins, general correspondent. Splendid services were held at the Baptist church Sunday. The Epworth league of the C. M. E. church rendered a good program Sunday evening. Slaughter Harvey of Massillon was a visitor here Monday.

Urbana, Ohio
The young people of Jerusalem Baptist church rendered a splendid program Sunday evening. The Rev. Turner has taken his office at St. Paul's A. M. E. church. He is a splendid speaker. Strauther post, American Legion, celebrated Armistice day. Mrs. Sara Lett of Anna, Ohio, returned to her home Saturday after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Guy. Mr. and Mrs. A. Chancellor and Miss Sara Faye Jones of Columbus motored over and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Guy. Mrs. Griffin, who is leaving Urbana for Akron, entertained over 40 ladies Thursday afternoon in honor of the Federation club of which she is a member. The club presented her with a beautiful beaded necklace. Ladies of the Eastern Star lodge also presented her with a handsome card case. The hostess served delicious refreshments. Mrs. Sara Lett of Anna, Ohio, and Mrs. Mabel Jones of Piqua, Ohio, were guests. Mrs. Albert Otey entertained the Sunshine club Thursday afternoon. Mrs. H. C. Boyd was hostess at a dinner party Wednesday evening. Guests were: Mrs. Rev. Turner, Mrs. Sara Lett of Anna, Mrs. John Guy, Mrs. J. Slaughter and Mrs. Edgar Boyd.

Wilmingon, Ohio
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams, a daughter, Leona May. The Fleur de Lis club gave their first social Nov. 15 at the A. M. E. church. Mrs. Robert Emmons was hostess to the Dorcas band at her home in Charles street. The next meeting will be at the home of Miss Bertha Anthony. Deacon Bass has been ill for the past week and little hope is entertained for his recovery. Mrs. Anna Jenkins also is ill. Miss Matilda Woolford of Martinsville is visiting among the Davis, Culberson and Crockett families. Mrs. Cleo Darnell spent the week-end with Miss Audrey Stewart. Harold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wilson, is ill. Miss Maurine Dugger dined with Miss Georganna Keller Sunday. William Tolliver, Hebron and Virgil Garrett were the guests of William Dugger. Miss Beaula Garrett was the dinner guest of Miss Gladys Tolliver.

Hamilton, Ohio
Mrs. Oda Lee Casey and her mother, Mrs. Tibbs, spent Sunday in Cincinnati. Clarence Sampson and Murray Mead motored to Cincinnati Thursday. Mrs. Tousey is improving slowly. Mrs. Florence Henson and son, Milton Collier, returned from Mayville, Ky., on Saturday. The play presented by Syene chapter, No. 61, was quite a success. Club No. 1 met with Mrs. McKee on Wednesday evening. The Elite met with Mrs. Robert Clark Thursday evening.

Tokdo, Ohio
Mrs. Soto, 292 Belmont avenue, is on the sick list. Mrs. Catherine Anderson of 127 Avondale avenue, after several weeks illness is able to be out. Mrs. Brooks, 370 Woodland avenue, is on the sick list. Mrs. John Kemp of Woodland avenue, after several weeks spent in Boston, has returned. Mrs. Alice Jackson, 317 Vance street, is visiting friends in Gary, Ind. Mesdames D. and M. C. Fuller were summoned to Memphis, Tenn., on account of their mother's sickness. Dr. and Mrs. Blake, after about three months spent in Columbus, Pittsburgh and points west, have returned home. They were the recipients of many social functions. They also visited their mother, Mrs. Nannie Grant Monnette. Ill. Mrs. Cooper, who spent some time in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Marie Royston, 401 Pinewood, has returned to her home in Memphis, Tenn. She will soon return to make this city her permanent home. The Young Women's Auxiliary Missionary society of Warren A. M. E. church will present to the Toledoans the Misses G. Wlicher, soprano soloist, and Marie Wumm, elocutionist of Massillon, Ohio, Monday evening, Dec. 4. The first quarterly meeting of Warren A. M. E. church for this conference year will be next Sunday, Nov. 26. Mrs. Drusella E. Clemens was called to Cleveland to be at the bedside of Mrs. Minerva Taylor, who is to submit to a very serious operation. Mrs. Mary Jackson will spend the winter in Florida. Miss Mary Doss has returned from a pleasant week spent in northern Michigan.

Newark, Ohio
Miss Mable Durkins of Indianapolis, Ind., left for Detroit last week after several weeks stay with her aunt, Mrs. John Cable of Washington street. Ed Watts of Race street left for Detroit, Mich., for the winter last week. Mrs. John Cable is in Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. Fred Brown was called to the bedside of her father in West Virginia.

Troy, Ohio
Henry Watkins and Mrs. Louella Wilkerson-Lee were united in marriage last week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ida Perrin on Ash street. The M. M. W. Reading club was entertained by Mrs. H. T. Wheat Monday night at the Glen Oak tea room. Mrs. Ida Perrin left Friday evening and dislocated her ankle. Mrs. Myrtle Gordon and Mrs. Roy Stewart attended the musicale at Memorial hall, Dayton, Ohio, Friday night, to hear Geraldine Farrar. There will be a concert at St. James A. M. E. church Thanksgiving night.