FROM OUR CORRESPONDENTS
AMSTERDAM, December 18th 1833.
The following letter was received by last evening's Mail by our Editor, and we have been previously informed in the publications of the public.
"SCHEIDING, Oct 2 July 18."
"Dear Sir, You are, after the receipt of disbursement, all the Mail for the West on this paper, we meet. The road between Cambridge and Younger, which had been not long ago by the Indians, has been repaired and is now open for the passage of the roads. The two principal points have been established on the Railroad, and, in addition to the regular traffic of these goods, distant articles are forwarded by the road to the Mail through the station. Large quantities of goods to the West, are sent the Mail route with particular notice, which in the course of its previous voyages, has been increased by land with transport."
Yours, &c.
JAMES TAYLOR."

the John Howland was that he had made some very important discoveries during his residence at the Cape of Good Hope, and that he had a plan to publish them in the Spring of 1835, when he will return to England. It is said that his plan will be to publish a book containing the results of his observations, and that it will be a very valuable one. He is also said to have discovered some new species of plants, and to have made some very important discoveries in the field of astronomy. He is also said to have discovered some new species of plants, and to have made some very important discoveries in the field of astronomy.

MR. ABEL IN CHINA.
The following letter from Mr. Abel in Hind. A. H. Wright, a member of the Society of Friends, will be read with interest. Mr. Wright has for some time been engaged in teaching, and expects to go to Persia to join Mr. Halliday. When Mr. Abel left the country, Mr. Wright had not received his letter. These remarks are necessary to intelligible communication to the friends.

Departure of Missionaries—The Rev. Wm. P. Hull, of Virginia, and the Rev. Thomas L. McIlhenny, of South Carolina, with their wives, sailed from Boston, in the ship Pommene, Captain Carter, on the 9th inst. under the direction of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church. Mr. Hull is appointed to a mission to Siam, and Mr. McIlhenny will join Mr. Orr in his labors on behalf of the Chinese at Singapore. The Rev. Mr. Hull and his wife, sailed from New York, on Sunday the 15th inst. for the Indian in South Eastern Africa, and the Rev. Amos H. Wright, M. D., on Monday the 19th inst. to join the Nazarene mission, under the direction of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

captured the bones of all its now enemies in this country. Canada was added to Great Britain, as a conquered country, which included the upper Mississippi valley, and that of the Ohio and Wabash and Louisiana, was added to Spain. But Great Britain, previous to this war, set up a claim to the Illinois and 'Vabash' country, from a claim made by the Iroquois confederacy. The Iroquois or Five Nations, as they are familiarly known in early aboriginal history, were the Romans of North America. They claim of this country by right of conquest from the Spaniards.

Mahometan Schism.—A new sect has lately set itself up in Persia, at the head of which is a man who has received from a pilgrimage to Mecca, and proclaimed himself a successor of the Prophet. The way they treat each other is as follows.—Four persons being bound regarding their professions of faith according to the terms proposed by the ingenuities, were apprehended, tried, and found guilty of responsible blasphemy.

The Secretary of the Republican Central Committee, Mr. John W. Ellis, in which he complains that we did him injustice in charging him with the authorship of certain editorials in the Gazette of week before last, and says that Mr. Marshall is responsible for them. We don't care who is responsible for them, but we repeat that Ellis wrote them, and our authority for the charge is Mr. Peagles, one of the proprietors of the Gazette, a gentleman in whose veracity we have the highest confidence, and who voluntarily informed us that Ellis was the author.

Through the efforts of Hon. Allen Borthwick, it affords us pleasure to notice that Mr. Daniel Sadgwar, a son of North Carolina and a brilliant student at Harvard University, has been appointed to a position in the Capitol. Mr. Sadgwar is above the ordinary average of his class for capacity and will graduate in June. He does not graduate from the University department for a profession, but far above it. He comes from the Academic department which will be awarded with equal distinction for his part for any of the responsible duties of his life.

South Carolina. It was my pleasure to attend the school exercises about the District last week and by special invitation to participate in the exercises on their general success. Daniel Sadgwar, son of Mr. David Sadgwar of our city, was promoted as a Clerk to the National Executive Committee Session at the Capitol. The appointment is a worthy one for Mr. Sadgwar is both gentlemanly and efficient.

An adjourned meeting of the Board was held yesterday morning, when the following business was acted upon: It was ordered that the following persons be called on to testify regarding the petition of Paul Nelson and Benjamin J. Dyer to be appointed Justices of the Peace for the County of Franklin, N. H.

The roof of a house on the corner of Fifth and Brunswick streets, owned and occupied by a colored man by the name of Judgwar, caught fire on Thursday evening, but the flames were extinguished without much damage to the property.

The body was much decomposed. A HAWKINSON five weeks old bear cub, caught on the Wolf River, has been exhibited about the city lately in a bear ching on a wagon.

...of Straight last week by Albert...
During the storm on the night of the 14th, six horses were killed by lightning on the Ellis farm, in the town of Rock Creek, situated about eleven miles southwest of this city. Two of them belonged to J. F. Ellis, of this city, a mare and a colt, two to his brother, Samuel, who lives on the farm, and two to Andrew Koff.

About one year ago this month Col. E. M. Bartlett, Assand Knutson, J. S. Hudson, and M. J. Argard formed a fishing party and went to —Show Hill (Editorial): For the first time in its history Show Hill is without a bar-room and there is no whiskey sold in Greene county. (Greene was once a habitable county containing taverns, distilleries, etc.)

—A long letter in the News Observer, by Mr. Hugh L. Cole, refutes the dangerous stories lately printed in some of the New York papers on the death of Mr. Gianrus E. Olds. Mr. Cole attributes the reports to the rapacious appetite for sensation among New York reporters.

—Matron (Editorial): Nine convicts have escaped from the railroad works in this country since they have been working here. Three escaped at one time last week, by making a break through the grounds. None of them

Mr. E. C. Yancy, of Edena Mills, Minn., has been spending the winter in Washington, D. C. Last week he made a speech at the "Bethel Literary" in which he gave some good advice to the young people, in regard to going West. His words were entitled to entire confidence, as he is a tiller of the soil, and has grown rich since he came to this state a few years ago.

Col. Geo. C. Fisham of Col., read an instructive paper on "The U. S. Senate" before the Bethel Literary and Historical Association on Tuesday evening last. Remarks were made by ex-Senator H. K. Brown, Messrs. J. Lawson and J. W. Cromwell. Mr. L. M. Herndon of Atlanta, Ga., will address the association next Tuesday night at the Metropolitan A. M. E. Church on "The impending crisis. HE IS A REPUBLICAN."

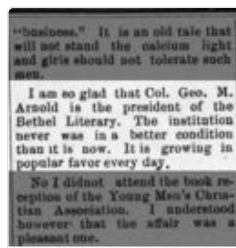

CONFIDENTIAL IN THE REAL...
The good people of St. Mary's are having a new flooring placed in the chapel, with carpets and cushions which they contemplate...

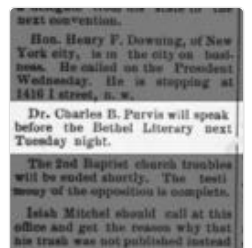

tary A. K. Brodie, treasurer, R. H. Gleaves, chairman executive committee, Capt. Arthur Brooks, marshal, Wm. H. Hammond.
Col. Geo. M. Arnold, president of the Bethel Literary has issued an important circular inviting attention to papers to be presented through the winter and spring seasons. A number of well known writers and thinkers are advertised to appear from time to time.

"business." It is an old tale that will not stand the calcium light and girls should not tolerate such men.
I am so glad that Col. Geo. M. Arnold is the president of the Bethel Literary. The institution never was in a better condition than it is now. It is growing in popular favor every day.
No I did not attend the book reception of the Young Men's Christian Association. I understood however that the affair was a pleasant one.

Dr. Charles B. Purvis will speak before the Bethel Literary next Tuesday night.
The 2nd Baptist church troubles will be ended shortly. The testimony of the opposition is complete.
Isiah Mitchell should call at this office and get the reason why that his trash was not published instead next convention.

Mr. J. Lee, the English traveler who arrived on the steamer on Monday, and an interview with whom was published yesterday, states that he did not intend any of his statements for publication. In fact, he was only in Trinidad; never visited the parishes, and his knowledge consisted of rumors current. He did not venture into the internal affairs of the country, and took no interest in them.

GRADUATING EXERCISES.
 Diplomas Granted Eight Graduates at the Branch Normal College Last Night.

The closing exercises of the Branch Normal College will conclude tonight. The graduating exercises were held last night and diplomas were granted to seven graduates, all of whom acquitted themselves well in the addresses they delivered. Tonight the Alumni Association takes place. The welcome address will be delivered by Marion F. Harris, graduate of '94, and the responses by Elizabeth Craig graduates of '95.

Personal.
 Mr. J. O. Bawa has returned from Ohio.
 Miss Nannie Keith Bean has returned from Vassar.
 Mrs. E. H. Jones will leave the last of the week for Houghton, Wis., to visit her son.
 Miss Lottie English left Friday for Warsaw, Ind., where she will make a five weeks' visit.

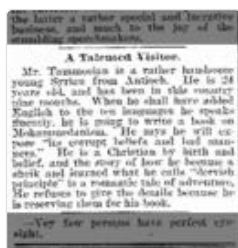

Sadgwar among those singing and giving a talk at Fisk

Great Reduction FINE MILLINE LEBECK BROS

facsimile of Morse telegraph message

A Talented Visitor.
 Mr. Tansiosian is a rather handsome young Syrian from Antioch. He is 28 years old, and has been in this country five months. When he shall have added English to the two languages he speaks fluently, he is going to write a book on Mohammedanism. He says he will expose "the corrupt beliefs and bad manners." He is a Christian by birth and belief, and the story of how he became a "paganist" is a romantic tale of adventure. He refuses to give the details because he is reserved when he is alone.

Great encouragement was given to the Chicago Art association, which is composed of students of forty of the most substantial men's and women's clubs in Chicago, had invited to the symposium artists, public-school drawing instructors, members of the Arts and Crafts association, and other outsiders to take part in the discussion, and the result was a gathering representative of much of the culture and refinement of the city. A line array of speakers had been asked to address the meeting, including Professor Jackson of the University of Chicago, Mary H. Ford, Mrs. John Vance Cheney, Alice Kallgren Tyler, and J. H. Vanderveer. Miss Josephine Locke was in charge of the symposium. There was also a programme of parietic music, both vocal and instrumental, Miss Stella La Zell furnishing the latter feature, with some well-assorted piano numbers. The table at which the traps and punch were served was decorated with flags. A fine group of silken banners forming the background. Mrs. Walter C. Anderson and Misses Ethel Scott, Leta Dwy, Beatie Dwy, and Elma Hall presided in the dining-room.
