...The exhibition includes several portraits, some more successful than that of Mr. James Howard Kehler, with his horse and dog. The portrait of Prof. J. Lawrence Latent is glided rather too low on the canvas for effect of impression. It is very spontaneous in execution and good in color. The figure has a convincing effect due solely to the subordinate composition.

BAHA TO LIVE IN MONTCLAIR.
 Famous Persian Religious Leader Takes a House There.
 Montclair, N. J., June 3.—Abdul Baha, the great Persian religious leader and head of the Bahá'ís, who will be in this country throughout the year, will make his home in Montclair. The famous prophet, who has spent forty of his seventy years in prison because of his religious beliefs, has taken the town of 117 houses after June 15. Abdul Baha recently spoke in Utah church here and was so impressed by the reception he received and by the physical aspects of the town that he expressed a desire to take up his abode in the town. There are about 8750 Baha'ís in Montclair.
