Dr. McGlauffin to Visit Capital Church

The Rev. William H. McGlauffin, general superintendent of the United Methodist Church, will visit the Capital Church...

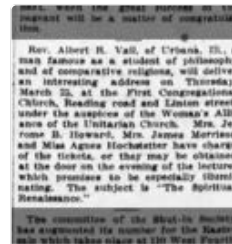

There's Madame Tingley will her philosophy out on Point Loma. If you have a meek, sensitive disposition, you were a cat before you became a woman. That's thoughtless, all right. Some of you were elephants and some of you were dogs. I haven't time to explain. And there's the national Holy Ghost and the society up in Shilo, Maine, with its self-deluded leader, Rev. Frank Smith, in the federal prison at Atlanta. There are the Bahabists who claim Christ has returned and is incarnated in that so-called leader, Abdul Baha or Abbas Effendi, as they call him. And then of Mrs. Edy and Joanna Southcott and Catherine and Volney Davis and other fanatics, fanatics, fanatics and frauds, some of them, though some of Law in Yearbook. Up, up my soul, onto the mountain side! The world of the world have been the down! The world and the fever of the times have all but shone away the power of light. The inward note obscure the power of light. Yet clear upon the hills and where the crown. Of care sits on thy brow should gleam of joyous freedom, still the heavenly light. The warrior trumpet of the wind is blown. The crystal dance of the fruit and wine. Ours and the jeweled Phylaxer: For they the binding ties of jarring sin. In human eyes and Love herself doth show. Those upward path to God-like service. —Lottie Plackey Hill.

"The Spirit of the World" is the subject of the lecture given by Rev. Albert H. Vail, of Union St., a man famous as a student of philosophy and of comparative religions, will deliver an interesting address on Thursday, March 25, at the First Congregational Church, Reading road and Linton street, under the auspices of the Women's Alliance of the Unitarian Church. Mrs. Jerome B. Howard, Mrs. James Morrison and Miss Agnes Hochstetler have charge of the tickets, or they may be obtained at the door on the evening of the lecture, which promises to be especially interesting. The subject is "The Spiritual Renaissance."

Wilson Names Woman Judge

WASHINGTON. — Nomination of Miss Kathryn Sellers, a department of state law clerk, as judge of the juvenile court here was sent to the senate yesterday by President Wilson. It is the first time a woman has been named for a judgeship in the District of Columbia.

WILSON NOMINATES WOMAN JUDGE OF JUVENILE COURT

Washington, July 2.—Nomination of Miss Kathryn Sellers, a department of state law clerk, as judge of the juvenile court here was sent to the senate yesterday by President Wilson. It is the first time a woman has been named for a judgeship in the District of Columbia.

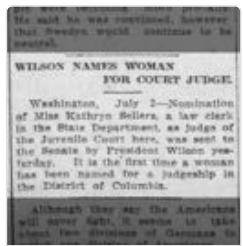

President Wilson has named Miss Kathryn Sellers as judge of a district court in Washington. That's all right; we need the men for war work.

Nomination of Miss Kathryn Sellers, a department of state law clerk, as judge of the juvenile court in Washington, was sent to the senate by President Wilson.

The president has appointed Miss Kathryn Sellers a judge of the juvenile court at Washington. Parkward editors and others, uncollected half brothers to the giant tortoise of the Galapagos islands, are much excited about this appointment, and "Whether are we drifting?" is the cry. We are drifting towards common sense quite rapidly, and Woodrow Wilson is adding speed to the current. About 10,000,000 men in this country say every day, "Ask your mother," eg. "I must ask my wife about it first."

WILSON NAMES WOMAN FOR COURT JUDGE

Washington, July 2.—Nomination of Miss Kathryn Sellers, a law clerk in the State Department, as judge of the juvenile court here, was sent to the Senate by President Wilson yesterday. It is the first time a woman has been named for a judgeship in the District of Columbia.
