BILION NEWS NOTES.
DILLON, Nov. 4.—The Ellen May girl will meet Thursday afternoon, Nov. 11, at the home of Miss Margaret Pearson, with Miss Stevenson and Miss Alice Rose as business.
Senator and Mrs. Frank A. Hainbaker are the parents of a daughter, born last night at the Barrett hospital. The happy father, who is chairman of the republican state central committee, today was joining out citizens.
Judge Lyman H. Bennett and Court stenographer E. L. Layton of Virginia City were in Dillon today in attend a session of the district court.
T. W. Wessman of Twin Falls spent yesterday in Dillon on a business mission.
The first number of the Journal college's annual Lyceum music will be presented Wednesday evening, when Marie Montana and Bernard Crain present a concert at the Normal auditorium.

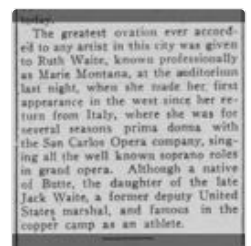

The greatest ovation ever accorded to any artist in this city was given to Ruth Waite, known professionally as Marie Montana, at the auditorium last night, when she made her first appearance in the west since her return from Italy, where she was for several seasons prima donna with the San Carlos Opera company, singing all the well known soprano roles in grand opera. Although a native of Butte, the daughter of the late Jack Waite, a former deputy United States marshal, and famous in the copper camp as an athlete.

MARIE MONTANA COMING FOR TUESDAY'S RECITAL

Marie Montana, whose voice is characterized as being of "exquisitely appealing quality" will be at the Peninsula hotel for a recital Tuesday, at 8 p.m., sponsored by the Altona Music Club. Critics everywhere laud her, but some of the highest praise she has received comes from Italian cities, from Paris from Shanghai, from Toronto.

special observance in Churches at Nation February 14
Preparations for a Nation-wide observance of race relations Sunday on the part of churches is being made. February 14, also now under way, sponsored by the Federal Council of Churches. The day has been chosen as the one nearest Lincoln's birthday.
Although special emphasis will be laid upon the establishment of better relations between the white and the black races, members of all faiths with one another will be considered in the special material which has been prepared. Programmes have been made to continue over a period of weeks to show that the study of race problems in connection, by Sunday schools and Bible classes and by incense services within the organized churches.
