Hub Man Discusses 'Race Unity' Here

Charles Krug of Boston spoke on "Race Unity" at an open meeting held at 161 State Street recently.

Mr. Krug declared that God peopled the world, "not with Shagbush, German, French, Chinese, and with black, white and yellow races, but with humanity."

"I had wanted to make distinctions between races and nations the world have made these distinctions clear," said the speaker.

God speaking through the messengers from Adam until today, says the speaker, "has always been the same: 'Love thy neighbor.'"

Mr. Krug continued: "We are afraid to break the law of unity by creating by chance of a high place, he said, 'not only and finally by breaking the greatest law of the creator of the universe.'"
