Baha'i Workshops To Dedicate Temple May 2

Marian Anderson pulled a quiet one last Wednesday when she hopped an air liner at LaGuardia Airport on the initial lap of her fight to Japan to give her first concert in that country. She stopped in Honolulu for two concerts on her way. After the tour in Japan, Miss Anderson will go to Korea to do a bit of singing for the boys who are doing a bit of patrol duty for the United Nations forces.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR CRATE and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Keiler are among those leaving today for Chicago to attend Baha'i International Convention April 29-May 6. They will join others from this country, the Americas and other foreign nations in dedicating Baha'i Temple, which they described as highlighting a holy year of Baha'i faith.
