MEMORIAL SERVICE

Sunday, Sept. 27, 11:00 A.M.

planned to play a Jewish heritage

The religious hostility toward Baha'is and Jews in Iran today is being reflected in Southern California. Los Angeles Baha'is, along with other U.S. communities of the faith, today will hold a memorial service for seven Baha'is executed Sept. 8 in Yazd, Iran. The service is at 3 p.m. in the Liberal Arts Lodge in Westwood. Meanwhile, the Greater Los Angeles Jewish Federation Council reports that its agencies are coordinating assistance to an estimated 20,000 Iranian Jews who have fled to the Los Angeles area after despairing over their safety or future in revolutionary Muslim Iran.
