Iran executes two Baha'is

Two members of the Baha'i faith were executed in Iran just a day after the U.N. Human Rights Commission expressed "profound concern" over the persecution of Baha'is by the Islamic regime, a Baha'i National Center spokesman said Monday.

The two were among a group of 23 Baha'is whose death sentences were reportedly upheld last week by Iran's Supreme Court, he said.

U.S. offers aid

George Bush said on Monday that the United States will offer $1 million in aid to help Baha'is in Iran.

Baha'i Community to offer study classes

The Baha'i Faith Baha'i Community will hold the first of a series of six study classes for the public starting on Sat. August 20. The purpose of the series is to provide an introduction to Baha'i teachings and to help individuals understand the Baha'i faith. The first class, presented by University of South Florida professor and author, Dr. Robert R. Lytle, will discuss the Baha'i faith's origins and its impact on the world. The second class, presented by Dr. Lytle, will discuss the Baha'i faith's teachings on the unity of humanity. The third class, presented by Dr. Lytle, will discuss the Baha'i faith's teachings on the unity of nature. The fourth class, presented by Dr. Lytle, will discuss the Baha'i faith's teachings on the unity of knowledge. The fifth class, presented by Dr. Lytle, will discuss the Baha'i faith's teachings on the unity of power. The sixth class, presented by Dr. Lytle, will discuss the Baha'i faith's teachings on the unity of glory. For more information, call 688-0221.

BOSCH BAHAI' - Two members of the Baha'i National Center in Wilmette, Ill. will lead classes at Bosch Baha'i School, 500 Comstock Lane, Saturday through Thursday.

Parson Stevens, chairman of the National Persian-American Affairs Committee and director of the Office of the Secretary of the National Spiritual Assembly will discuss "Baha'i Institutions as Models of Justice." Also at the school will be Dale Carnegie instructor Jan Mulvaney, who will speak on "The Best Method: Creating Reciprocity." For more information, call 688-0221.

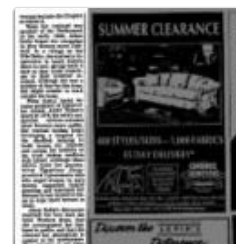

Baha'i Feast

A special Baha'i-sponsored Unity Feast will take place at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the home of Paul and Ruth Johnson at 725 Channas Cove Road. For more information call 251-1651.

Every nation, and in U.S. Rep. James McClure Clark, will be the speaker Democrats of any age are invited.

Baha'is gather
The Bay Area Baha'is will attend a state district convention Sunday, Oct. 1, in Grants Pass.
Members will consult on state, national and international affairs as well as electing a delegate to represent the district at the nationwide Baha'i convention in April. At that gathering, new Baha'is will be elected to serve year-long terms on the national level, with administrative offices in Waukegan, Illinois.
At the district gathering topics will include Baha'i schools, social and economic help for all strata of society, services for the blind and hearing impaired, face unity, help for Baha'is refugees from Iran and other issues.

Cleanup volunteers sought HENDERSONVILLE - Volunteers are being sought to participate in a Saturday cleanup effort as renovation work continues at Lockfield Cemetery, once a show cemetery for historic Rock Castle. The project was initiated by the Interdenominational Bahai's community, along with members of Rockfield Road Missionary Baptist Church and Mount Oliver Baptist Church. Volunteers are restoring and reworking the grounds and hope to focus more on those who were buried there. The cemetery is located on the shore of Old Hickory Lake at Woodward Park. Although part of the cemetery may have been destroyed when Old Hickory Lake was created, more than 20 graves have been discovered there, said Becky Blackwell, a coordinator of the project. The project will end with a dedication ceremony at the cemetery on June 28, designated as Baha' Unity Day. Anyone interested in participating in the project Saturday may call 832-4925 or 832-3396.
