Baha Followers to Hold Commemoration

By Associated Press
New York, Jan. 2.—(AP)—The Baha'is will hold a commemoration for the world today to remember the "birthday" of the prophet of Abdu'l-Baha, "father of the movement," who died in Haifa, November 28, 1921.

Abdu'l-Baha, Allah in deed in Baha, unless you are a grateful goose or a new-thoughtist, you fail to connect him up with anything definite.

London, England, January 10.—(AP)—The Baha'is in Ireland are holding a commemoration for the birth of Abdu'l-Baha, the "father of the movement," who died in Haifa, November 28, 1921.

House condemns Iran for oppressing Baha'is

WASHINGTON — The House voted 414-0 Tuesday to condemn Iran for oppression of its Baha'i religious minority. Congress has passed five other resolutions condemning Iran for its treatment of the Baha'i community since 1982, but each time there is a "new twist to the outrage," Rep. Benjamin Gilman, R-N.Y., said. The latest allegations involve the destruction of Baha'i gravesites in Teheran cemeteries and the selling of grave markers to construction firms for building stones.

"Under the auspices of the Baha'i faith, Willard P. Hatch will speak tomorrow at 3 p.m., 1709 West Eighth st., on 'The Oneness of Faiths.' He asserts: 'We are all the fruit of one tree and the leaves of one branch. There are not two trees—one a tree of divine mercy, the other a tree of Satan. All are the children of one God; there is not a single exception to that law. All must be treated, educated, trained and assisted in love, and to a full realization of the unity of all mankind.'"

'Children of God' Subject for Sermon
"Children of God" is the subject of a sermon preached yesterday by Willard P. Hatch at the Halliburton Building. He said: "We are all the fruits of one tree, and there are not two trees—one a tree of divine mercy, the other a tree of Satan. All are the children of one God. There is not a single exception to that law. There are no people of Satan—all belong to the merciful God. Some do not know, and they must be guided and trained."

Baha'i Faith
"Willard P. Hatch will speak tomorrow at 3 p.m. at 1709 West 8th st. on 'The Baha'i Faith, Its Principle.'" Hatch says, "Essentially, the source of the revolution which is the source of the Baha'i Faith, has stressed the establishment of unity amongst all the nations and peoples of the earth. His plan contains the pattern through which the divine civilization may be brought into existence in this age."

Heavenly Books' Purpose Explained
"The purpose underlying every heavenly book is to induce men with righteousness and understanding, so that peace may be established," Willard P. Hatch said yesterday at a Baha'i service in the Halliburton Building. "God's purpose in sending His prophets into the world is to show to those the peace of mankind from the darkness of ignorance and guide them in the light of understanding, and the second is to show the peace of mankind and provide means by which it can be established and maintained."

The Baha'i Group will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Lillian V. Reed at Elm Heights, South Brewer. The topic for discussion will deal with the cause of the present day world plight. The text for the discussion will be "Today the world of humanity is walking in darkness because it is out of touch with the world of God. True religion is the source of love and agreement among men, the cause of the development of praiseworthy qualities, but the people are holding to the counterfeit and imitation, indulgent of the realities which unity, so they are bereft and deprived of the radiance of religion."

Black heritage exhibit is on display
PORTLAND — An exhibit titled "Northwest Black heritage: the posters" is on display through Dec. 10 at the Oregon Historical Center, 1225 S.W. Park Ave.
Thomas Vaughan, the executive director, said the exhibit commemorates the 200th anniversary of the arrival of the first black person known to visit the Oregon Country.
Marcus Lopez was about Capt. Robert Gray's ship when it sailed into Tillamook Bay in 1792. He was killed by Indians.
The free display shows the contributions of blacks from those days until Beatrice Morrow Cannady became the first black woman to practice law in the state.
The center is open from 10 a.m. to 4:45 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

Capitol Gallery exhibit to honor black women
The exhibit is a collection of photographs and documents that honor the contributions of black women in Oregon. It is a tribute to their strength, resilience, and leadership. The exhibit is a testament to the progress that has been made and the work that still needs to be done.
