The Miller Star has been awarded Staff Sgt. Joseph Goggin Jr. of 18 12th St. who is credited with saving his squad under fire. When all members of his infantry squad were wounded, Sergeant Goggin, realizing that the entire company was exposed to blast machine gun fire, stole around the enemy tank to their rear and opened fire, "locking" his position. He killed two Germans and found the rest to surrender, while his company occupied, moved safely to a position from which it acted its objective. The 21-year-old sergeant, who has been twice wounded, entered service 2 1/2 years ago and has been overseas 14 months.
