Dear Bahá'í Friends,

Your email letter of 10 January 2011, concerning the authenticity of a passage attributed to 'Abdu'l-Bahá which begins "Know that you are where you are, not by chance, but by the design of your Creator..."", has been received at the Bahá'í World Centre and forwarded to our Office for reply. The following has been provided in response to similar queries posed to the Universal House of Justice on other occasions.

As an original text of this statement has not been found, its authenticity cannot be confirmed.

(From a memorandum dated 29 March 2011 prepared by the Research Department at the request of the Universal House of Justice)

With loving Bahá'í greetings,

Office of Correspondence
