HOTEL MARQUARDT
STUTTGART

~~Dear Harriet~~

This is the last day of the month and the last day of our stay in Stuttgart. Tomorrow morning 10. 53. we will leave for Paris, arriving there ~~I suppose~~ about 9 o'clock pm. The enforced rest of the last two days has improved the Masters health and the Doctor tells us today that he can leave easily tomorrow. ~~If I am not mistaken~~ We left Paris the first of April and we are returning the first of May. In this month ~~the~~ many events were chronicled and the Cause was promoted through three other European Countries, Germany, Austria and Hungary. What a wonderful month ~~days~~! Like a glorious ~~vision~~ ~~day~~ have passed away never to be repeated again. I can never explain in words the inner, spiritual experiences of these days. They are days which are printed upon the page of memory with the ink of gold. I have witnessed the victory of our King of Kings upon every occasion and the love and reverence shown to him both by strangers and friends are the greatest proofs of his power. We will enter Paris with glad hearts, because this trip of the Master has been more successful than we ever could conceive! He is also very happy, because the Call of the Kingdom was raised, the fragrances of the garden of Allah diffused and the rays of the Sun of Reality spread. What greater joy do we need? What more perfect beatitude done by for?

This morning the Beloved felt much better, his throat being clearer. Mr Bergel Consul Schwarz, Mr Ruff and several other friends were the early callers to inquire about ~~the~~ his health of ~~the~~ ~~Master~~. About half past nine a group of the believers had gathered in his presence and he addressed them thus:— Having arrived in Stuttgart we have become your guest. We have the greatest attachment for you. We are striving that perchance the East and the West, God willing, may become unified. My Western trip was an introduction to this.
Our sought consummation
This is the beginning of the dawn.
I hope the lights of oneness may shine upon all the regions. The keepers of the world are dissolving the drops and when these drops are gathered together, they will form a great sea. I hope that all of them may become united and conjoined, then the sea of the oneness of the world of humanity shall manifest gloriously. The inhabitants of the world are like unto the sheep and they are scattered; we hope to gather these dispersed sheep into one flock and the shepherd them under the divine training of the Ideal Shepherd. So they may find comfort and rest in the verdant meadows of everlasting happiness and drink from the fountain of eternal life. This is my aim in life. What do you say? Does it agree with yours or ~~conflict~~ does it conflict?

These sheep of God are very much dispersed. They are scattered over the rocky mountains, down in the valleys of darkness, and over the burning Sahara and they are constantly surrounded by the blood-thirsty wolves. How wonderful will it be if they could be brought together in this green, divine plain, the ~~their~~ ~~to~~ the utmost joy and be protected and preserved by the compassionate shepherd. The denizens of the world are like unto the children and the real father is God. How sweet will it be if all these children could be brought under the Education of the heavenly Teacher and every one seek the wisdom of the Lord Father!"

All morning people continued to come and to everyone the Master delivered an address, each a little bright gem of the Spiritual Kingdom.

When Mrs and Mrs Schwarz arrived at ~~after the Below~~ the cabins, he asked them to bring their ~~cabinets~~ at 3 o'clock and later him out over the "green mountains" of Shutt for the last time.

3 About two o'clock the Master gave a "little talk" to a group of ladies on the women's rights. Herein it is reproduced:-

"In former times no one would have believed that women shall arise and demand equal rights and stay

Now in America the women have received suffrage in a number of States and there cause is moreheinpon. One of the meaning of the prophecy in the old Testament that the lion and the deer shall graze together in one meadow is that men and women shall be equal and have the same rights. For example Doctor Faber who is so big and Miss Kinkbock who is so small will be equal! This work made everybody laugh and for more than half an hour the Beloved kept them in constant roar of laughter by telling them a number of amusing multant stories of the English suffragettes.

4 At three o'clock many Bahais came and were sad to hear the Master was going to leave tomorrow. He told them to consider what wonderful love is this that has been established between us through the Power of His Holiness Baha-Ullah! The Shah of Persia came twice to Stuttgart. Although he was a royal King he did not find one real, heartfelt friend. The utmost that the government received him officially according to its long-established custom just as it would have received any other royal Personage. But those who were Prisoners for 40 yrs have come here and have found so many heartfelt, cordial friends whose love and affection are lasting and not temporary. Therefore it is made clear to you that this love and unity have been brought into being through an extraordinary power; otherwise it would have been impossible for our hearts to be so cemented together; while from a worldly standpoint, the king of Persia must have been the object of love and esteem & the holy divine manifestations of God through whom this mighty and potent power appears and the very quintessences of existence and the plain people who follow their teachings are greater than the kings and queens of the earth. Reflect what the Power of the Kingdom is Abha has accomplished! Its rays are shining upon the hearts! Its Bestowals have established communication between the spirits! Its principles have ushered in a new era of spiritual brotherhood! Ere long ye shall observe that the splendors of the Kingdom of Abha have illumined the East and the West!" Then he lovingly distributed fruits and sweets amongst the children. There was a young musician who has just become interested in the Cause and the Beloved before bidding them adieu addressed him thus:

"Music is a sign of the signs of God. Just as the earthy music bestows exhilaration and rejoicing to the bodies so the spiritual music stirs into cheerfulness and beatific bliss the hearts and the spirits. The prophets of God are the heavenly Artists or musicians. Therefore, I hope that whenever you are playing upon your instrument, you may hear the invisible song of the Kingdom and the Divine anthem. Just as the material, martial music stirs the hearts of the warriors, may your ethereal music inspire the spirits of the warriors of Peace and Salvation. +

6 The Beloved came down and with Frau and Fraulein Conseul and the two little sons and myself and we started for the Castle Bebenhausen. Those of the Company were in another automobile. We passed through wonderful royal woods full verdant and lovely. Hills and mountains were in their fair dresses and the Master enjoyed a two hours Continual drive through the most beautiful divine country, the like of which natural reldom produced anywhere else. On the way he stopped at the village called Steinenbronn. He came down from the Car and distributed money and candies amongst a few children and started to walk through the streets. Immediately the rumor was spread that the "King of the East" has come and more than one hundred children were after the Master. We soon me some money and I changed it in a nearby store and he asked me to ~~distribute~~ distribute amongst them. I ordered them to form a long line and put a piece of money in the hand of each. When I finished my pleasant "job" the Master told me: "You have now mustered an army and You can fight just any Power."

Arriving at Bebenhausen he walked through the castle. It is a hunting castle of the King and Queen who come during the summer to hunt in the woods. Formerly it has been a monastery but now it is transformed into a royal castle. It has an Irish Church which dates back to 12th century. The master walked through the rooms and there we saw a chess box with which Napoleon the Great had played with it with the King. Contrary to his custom the Belovedmost a line of poetry in the guest book, a rough translation of which is as follows:—

"The Imperial Court is empty because I do not see the royal face of the King. The verdant meadow is chagrined because it is not adorned with the stately stature of the Queen. The ~~automobile of Otto~~ car which brought the bear of our company has three accidents on its way to the Castle and they had to telephone to the city for another one. While they were in the country waiting for the arrival of the new car, Lord Archibald had a good sleep on the grass. In ~~while~~ the ~~auto~~ car waiting the host said to Mr. Law and Fraulein Conrad: "Praise be to Sad that I have come to Stuttgart 16 and summoned the people to the Kingdom of Abba. I am pleased that Sad has accused me.

Now that noble souls like unto you have heard the Call of the Kingdom, I too arise with enthusiasm and courage to teach and spread the glad tidings of the Kingdom.
I have the witness of Judah in you and even expect to receive good news from you. After me, raise your voices and cry out in the name of Abba and suffer the people to enter [illegible] the Kingdom of God. My heart is with Jr.

My spirit is with you. I must now go. I have accomplished my work.
I will be always with you. In reality Stuttgart has the capability of becoming the center of this Kingdom, Queen in Europe.
9. We reached at the hotel about 8 o'clock. Many of the friends were waiting at the door and greeted the Master as he entered. Some were called into his Presence and he spoke words to them.
Jr and Jrs Wright had supper for the Master and disciples all of us because we did not have time to go out. Really, these two days have served the Cause most wonderfully. Its close association with Mr Berryfel during the past month has made us to love him more than he knows. Your manner by heart because he has been marketing to you every day.

And bye & bye Stuttgart. We take away with us tomorrow the Lord and affection of all the believers of last Sunday. Pleased
All Greetings Thro' Mrs. Kerrigel
